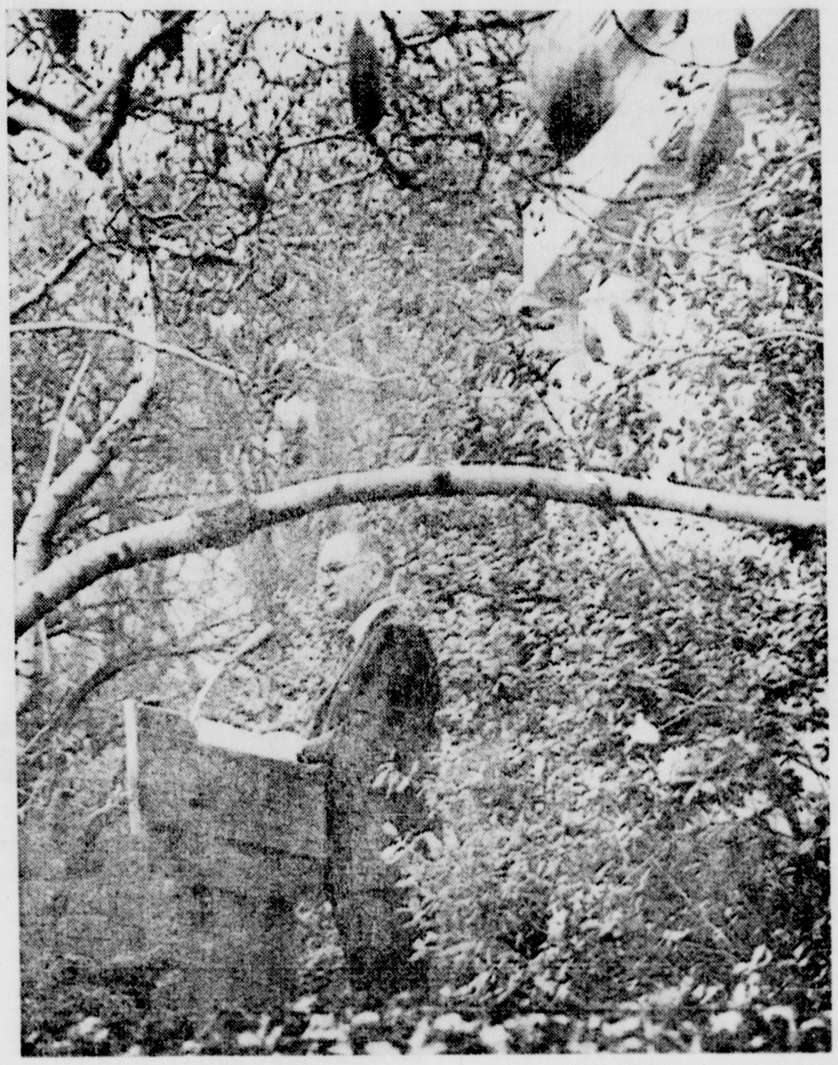
Plan For New Hospital Would Contain Heliport



UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREES

This unusual picture of President Lyndon B. Johnson was taken today as he addressed a church group in the blossom-filled Rose Garden outside his White House office. Under flowering magnolia trees, Johnson told a Christian leadership seminar group, sponsored by the Southern Baptist Convention, that "no group of Christians has more responsibility in civil rights than the Southern Baptists." San Rafael General Proposal

By PHIL FRADKIN

San Rafael General Hospital is definitely going ahead on plans for a new hospital, with a heliport on its roof.

The initial facility will have between 100 and 150 beds, but there will be room to expand to 250 to 350 beds by 1975.

Site of the hospital will be on 7.1 acres of land given to the San Rafael Hospital Foundation by San Rafael land developer Harry Heifetz. The site is off Channing Way, north of the Marin County Civic Center.

DETAILS IN LETTER

Details of the plans are contained in a letter sent by hospital administrator Arthur G. Burns to the Marin Medical Society, asking for the society's comments.

Burns confirmed today that the board of trustees plans to relocate the hospital "as soon as possible." Construction could be completed in three years, he said.

Early in January, Burns told the Marin Hospital District board that "we should have a definite answer on our plans for expansion in the next 90 days."

The administrator said letters to 25 Bay Area architects would be sent out this week. A cost figure for the first unit of the hospital will not be available until an architect is hired and submits an estimate.

MAKES INQUIRY

The board has made inquiries on the amount of Hill-Burton Act funds that would be available toward construction of the hospital. The board favors private loans, possibly from foundations, to raise the rest of the money, Burns said.

He said single rooms were planned for the hospital because of the time consumed in assigning persons to share rooms on the basis of race, sex, age and other factors. Single rooms would also allow more flexibility.

In the letter to the medical society, Burns said a roof-top

Assembly Tries Sending On Incomplete Budget Measure

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The legislature sputtered toward a premature close today without doing the job it came to do — enact a state budget.

The Assembly sent its 3.67-billion-dollar version to the Senate yesterday, without the required two-thirds majority.

The Senate refused to even consider it.

Its finance committee chairman George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez) delivered a sharp reprimand to the lower house for sending over an "incomplete and imperfect bill."

The Assembly fell back on a parliamentary device to shuttle the measure to the Senate by majority rather than two-thirds vote. Democrats hoped to muster the two-thirds margin for final passage when the bill returned from the Senate, 27-13 Democratic. But the Senate rejected that plan.

The deadlock will force Gov. Edmund G. Brown to resort to a sepcial session for the third consecutive year to retrieve his spending program from the partisan snarl in the Assembly.

Leaders of both houses gave up hopes of negotiating a settlement before the 30-day budget session reaches its legal deadline Sunday.

The Senate's president pro tem, Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) planned to close down his house over the Easter weekend with no action on the budget. Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) indicated he would follow suit.

"We'll meet Monday anyway," said Burns, "so it makes little difference when the governor calls the special session."

The legislature already is in the midst of a 42-item special session called by Brown in February. This session has no fixed adjournment date.

Senator Miller said his finance committee would sit on the budget — and its own 3.55 billion-dollar version — until it appears that the Assembly can muster the 54 votes needed for final passage.

"We have done all we can do," replied Chairman Robert W. Crown (D-Alameda) of the Assembly ways and means committee.

"If the Senate will send their version to us, we could try to get the 54 votes."

Nothing doing, said Miller.

He said he was getting tired of having the Assembly rely on a short vote to get the bill to the Senate.

The Assembly, 50-28 Democratic, approved its measure by a strictly partisan lineup, 49-28. One Democrat was absent.

Republicans refused to provide the necessary two-thirds margin unless the Democrats agreed to place 620 million dollars in education bond issues on the ballot.

Marin Medics Win Battle Against Oath

Simple Affirmation Of Loyalty To Be Substituted

Marin Medical Society today won its long fight to abolish the California Medical Assn. so-called loyalty oath.

Not a dissent was voiced as the state medical association's house of delegates voted to wipe out the oath which has been required since 1951 of its officers, delegates and employees, and substitute a simple affirmation of loyalty proposed by the Marin delegation.

UNANIMOUS VOTE

At conclusion of the unanimous voice vote, the 300-member house of delegates burst into applause, the Associated Press reported from convention headquarters in Los Angeles.

The CMA's rules committee yesterday recommended passage of a by-law change repealing the oath.

It was the fifth attempt by the Marin society to abolish the oath. In four previous annual conventions, the Marin resolution was either side-tracked or killed in committee.

REQUIRED OATH

The association's by-laws required that all officers, delegates and employees sign the following oath: "I do not belong and have not belonged to any organization advocating the overthrow or change of the form of government of the U.S.A. by violent or unlawful means, nor do I belong or have belonged to any organization while it was listed, published or held to be subversive by the Department of Justice."

To replace it, the Marin society proposed this affirmation: "I hereby declare my loyalty to the United States of America, and to the constitution of the California Medical Assn."

Last year, the House of Delegates refused to seat Dr. J. Lyman Hurlbut, an alternate delegate from Marin, because he refused to sign the oath.

The oath became an issue in the Marin society's election last November, with a proposed slate of officers and delegates who were pledged not to sign the oath being defeated by what were announced as "decisive" margins. All candidates, however, had pledged to work at the Los Angeles convention for abolishment of the oath.

The Marin doctors objected that the oath constituted a disclaimer of implied guilt. Dr. Hurlbut pointed out repeatedly that no such a disclaimer is included in the oath of office of the President of the United States.

The CMA rules committee turned down yesterday a substitute resolution submitted by Dr. Leonard M. Asher of Los Angele, which would have rescinded the oath requirement for delegates and alternates but not for other officers and employees.

Other resolutions recommended for passage today, as

DOCTOR IS DENIED USE OF HOSPITAL

Medical Proficiency Questioned; Claims Bias Over Medicare Issue

A San Francisco doctor was denied surgical privileges at Marin General Hospital last night because of "insufficient evidence of medical proficiency."

Dr. Sanford W. Ascherman stated through his attorney, Harry Gonick of Oakland, that he would appeal for a hearing before the hospital district board. At his request the hearing can either be public or private.

He charged hospitals are discriminating against him because he supports the government Medicare program.

Ascherman's request for the special privilege of delivering the baby of Mrs. Joyce E. Conway of 30 La Brea Way, San Rafael, was referred to hospital administrator William W. Turner.

Mrs. Conway, who is eight months pregnant, said she refuses to go to any other doctor. "I have confidence in him. Don't I have the right to choose whom I want to deliver my child?" she asked the hospital district board.

Asked why she waited until one month before her baby was due to request that Ascherman be allowed to deliver the child, Mrs. Conway replied, "As far as I knew, all you did was pack your bag and appear at the hospital."

Ascherman said he had delivered between 75 and 100 babies, but none in the last two years. He has privileges only at Polyclinic Hospital in San Fran-

Trustee Blocks Payment For School Trip

"I won't sign warrant 6542," said trustee Leo Souza at last night's meeting of the Reed School District board.

He thereby blocked payment of $299 to American Airlines for Supt. Edward C. Pino's flying trip to New York in connection with the "School of Tomorrow" conference held last month in the Reed district.

The Ford Foundation gave $2,000 for the conference, which was co-sponsored by Reed district and the county schools office. Pino's trip was in connection with the foundation's grant.

Souza said the board has a policy that the superintendent shall not leave the state without board approval. He said Mrs. Alyce Farkas, board chairman, gave consent for Pino's trip without asking the other trustees.

As only three members were present last night, the warrant could not be approved without Souza's signature. It was put over to the next meeting, when trustees Richard J. MacLaury and David D. Ring, last night's absentees, may be present.

Machine Sales Of Cigarettes Denied Minors

Police Chief Robert Di Grazia last night reported to the Novato City Council that his force has stopped the sale of cigarettes to minors in Novato drive-ins.

"We have received cooperation of the owners who keep the machines unplugged until a person can show proof of age," the chief reported.

He said he and Wes Sharpley of the Empire Vending Machine Co. and Redwood Vending Machine Co. at 624 Lindaro Street, San Rafael, owners of all cigarette machines in Novato, would make a thorough check of all Novato vending machines, starting at 9 a.m. Friday.

The chief also said he is having a copy of the state law forbidding sale of tobacco to minors sent to all merchants.

Survey Shows Novatans Want New Library

Seventy-seven per cent of Novatans want a new library, and 66 per cent favor a bond issue to get it.

The Jaycees circulated 3,500 questionnaires with 46 questions covering items from general information to service clubs, city government, merchants, and fire protection. Of these, 1,600 were filled out and returned, reported Paul D. Fry, junior chamber president.

Better recreation and free garbage collection topped the list of services the people thought the city should provide, said Fry's 20-page report, copies of which were to be distributed to city council members today.

Next in order were local bus transportation, more policemen, and better public works.

The last was tied in with opinion of 54 per cent of those responding that the city's street maintenance program is unsatisfactory.

The people want parks, but they don't want to pay for them, the survey showed. Seventy-three per cent said the city should buy and maintain neighborhood parks; but 64 per cent were opposed to additional taxes for parks.

In the business district, the people want more department, clothing, furniture and music stores, the survey indicated.

Marin Weather Below Freezing

It was 28 degrees in Woodacre and 30 in Novato. San Rafael, with a low of 36, was out of the freeze zone, but it still seemed pretty cold considering the season.

The Weather Bureau today predicted temperatures will climb back to normal for the rest of the week. There may be some cloudiness in Northern California tomorrow due to a small storm off the coast of British Columbia. Winds will be gentle to moderate.

Easter Display Set Up In Mill Valley

A white China goose with a bump on his head, a duck, three rabbits and a brood of baby chicks were on display in the barnyard scene in Mill Valley's Lytton Square today as part of the city's Easter display.

The scene was set up yesterday under supervision of G. W. Robertson, taxi driver, with animals and fowls furnished by Steve Scott and feed by Wilton's Pet Supplies.

State High Court Asks Answer On Salinger

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The California Supreme Court today requested a legal answer by the secretary of state as to why he opposes putting the name of Pierre Salinger on the ballot as a Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate. (See story, page 2)

Yesterday Secretary of State Frank Jordan refused to accept the filing of the former White House press secretary, saying no proof was offered that he was a Democrat or a registered California voter.

Novatan Get Rabies Shots After Attack By Skunk

The county health department laboratory examined the skunk, which Borloz killed when he found it chasing his two dogs.

Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer, said the animal jumped Borloz before he was able to shoot it, and he found cuts and his right leg afterwards. Although Borloz was not certain whether he had been bitten, health officials ordered that he begin the shots as a safety measure.

One of the dogs was destroyed and the other will be revaccinated, Dr. Albrecht said.

It was the fifth rabid skunk reported to the health department this year, she noted.

The health officer said her department now uses a faster method of diagnosing rabies, but stressed that the presence of rabid animals in the county makes it important for parents to teach children not to go near or play with wild animals.

Negroes Attack White Man, 53, In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)— A group of young Negroes attacked a white man and smashed him in the face with a brick today in this racially tense coastal city.

Patrolman M. P. Garris said the group, consisting of 12 to 15 boys and girls, attacked Lester Phillips, 53, in a fringe white-Negro neighborhood.

"They slammed a brick into his face and then ran down an alley," the officer said.

Mayor Hayndon Burns today appealed for an end to three days of racial violence here and President Lyndon B. Johnson discussed the city's troubles with top Justice Department officials.

Police disclosed that a white man who claimed he had been tied to a tree Monday night by several Negroes and slashed with a razor had inflicted the wounds himself.

Poison Probably Killed Girl, 16

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) — Chlorine of lime, used to bleach cow's tails for stock shows, probably killed 16-year-old Karen McCarthy of Gilroy, San Mateo County Coroner Paul Jensen said yesterday.

Yorty Says Salinger Had To Make Move

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mayor Samuel W. Yorty, an avowed supported of ailing Sen. Clair Engle, said today that Pierre Salinger decided to run for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator "because he had to have some place to go."

At his weekly news conference, Yorty also said that George Reedy, current press secretary to President Johnson, was "standing in the wings and Salinger knew this and decided he better make a move."

Governor Delays Redwood Trip

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The legislature's budget deadlock prompted GKov. Edmund G. Brown today to postpone the start of a tour of California's north coast redwoods until tomorrow.

His office said he will leave for Crescent City late tomorrow and spend Friday and Saturday inspecting state parks.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Fire Leaves 100 Homeless

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Nearly 100 persons were homeless today and six others injured as a result of a smoky five-alarm fire in a three-story apartment building.

The building on Mission Street was over a carpet store and on the same side of the street as six furniture stores. The walls remained.

Thousands watched about 250 firemen take more than one hour to bring the blaze under control last night.

Troops Block Students In Seoul

SEOUL (AP)—Troops used tear gas today to block thousands of students marching on President Chung Hee Park's mansion to protest concession to Japan in Tokyo talks seeking to normalize Japanese-Korean relations.

An army lieutenant and several soldiers were injured when the shouting mob tried to force its way toward Park's hillside mansion.

Billboards Ban Measure Gains

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to ban most billboards from interstate and state highways in California won the approval yesterday of the Assembly Committee on Natural Resources, Planning and Public Works.

The bill would prohibit billboards within 800 feet of highways. Exceptions would include stretches of highway through cities or commercial zones, on-site signs, and signs with information for the motoring public.

Sign owners would have five years to remove them, and would be given compensation.

Japan Prime Minister Apologizes

TOKYO (UPI)—Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda used the first live television broadcast between Japan and the United States today to apologize directly to the American people for the stabbing of U.S. Ambassador Edwin O. Reischauer.

Ikeda, using the facilities provided by the Relay II U.S. communications satellite, said he spoke on behalf of the Japanese people in regret over the stabbing yesterday of the 53-year-old Reischauer by a mentally-deranged, 19-year-old youth.

The prime minister, whose words were simultaneously translated on the television screen as he spoke, extended "warmest greetings" to the American people.

MacArthur Showing Improvement

The 84-year-old military hero's convalesence appeared to continue to amaze his doctors. The Army's Walter Reed Medical Hospital said:

"General MacArthur continues to progress satisfactorily, indicating a better than average post-operative course. He is alert and conversing."

JFK Award Asked

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A Democratic assemblyman has introduced a resolution asking Congress to award President John F. Kennedy a posthumous Congressional Medal of Honor. The measure was introduced yesterday by Harvey Johnson of El Monte.

Bonds Approved

REDWOOD CITY (AP) — San Mateo County voters approved last night a 12.8-million-dollar junior college bond issue. The money is to be used to build two more campuses and to enlarge the present campus.

Jobless Pay Bill Passes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate gave final congressional aproval today to a 42-million-dollar emergency appropria- compensation payments flowing to jobless ex-federal workers and servicemen.

The jobless payment measure, passed the House yesterday, was approved by the Senate appropriations committee this morning, and was adopted by voice vote of the Senate shortly thereafter.

Loan Bill Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Holding companies of savings and loan associations would come under closer state scrutiny under a bill proposed in the Senate by Alan Short (D-Stockton). The measure put in yesterday broadens investigate authority of the state savings and loan commissioner without bothering the companies, Short said.

$1 Billion Asked To Stem The Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today free world strength around the edge of the Communist bloc will quickly melt away unless the military assistance program gets at least a billion dollar a year.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, sounded an even stiffer warning. He said the requested billion dollars for the coming fiscal year can only be regarded as a holding operation of borderline adequacy.

Boat Exposion Hearing Recesses

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A Coast Guard hearing into the explosion that ripped apart a huge barge in the Oakland estuarly has been recessed for evaluation of testimony.

The barge, capable of carrying more than 40 railroad cars, blew apart last week, killing two workers and injuring 13 others.

A paint contractor said yesterday the barge was newly-painted and "you'd be pushing your luck if you lit a match . . . too soon after the paint was put on."

Hundreds Snowbound In California

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Heavy snows delighted skiers, but hampered rescue attempts today for hundreds of hikers and vacationers snowbound in Southern California mountains.

Snows dropped to the 3,000-level.

Missing are 16 boy scouts and at least six other persons 20 miles north of Santa Barbara. Los Padres National Forest Rangers, however, said they were believed capable of caring for themselves.

Four other hikers were found on Mount San Jacinto near Palm Springs.

Concert Pianist Dies

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Concert pianist Lester Donahue, 72, died yesterday at St. Vincent's Hospital following a lengthy illness. A native of Los Angeles, Donahue's career spanned nearly a half-century with numerous appearances both in this country and abroad.

Salinger Bid May Wind Up In High Court

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The fast-paced legal wrangle over Pierre Salinger's eligibility to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate from California might finally wind up in the U.S. Supreme Court.

This was the impression given by Salinger's press aide, Andrew Hatcher, who stressed to a reporter yesterday that U.S. Senate candidacy hinges on the federal constitution, not state law.

Despite the court fight, Salinger, former White House press secretary, is running hard all over California.

The opponents of Salinger's 11th hour entry in the race say Salinger has not given proof that he is either a Democrat or a California resident.

Salinger hasn't lived in California since 1955. He has been a registered voter in Virginia.

Hatcher said the federal Constitution requires only that a candidate for the U.S. Senate be at least 30 years old, a U.S. citizens for nine years and an inhabitant of the state on the day of the election.

A bank note for 1/90th of a dollar was issued on Aug. 6, 1789, by the Bank of North America, according to the Chase Manhattan Bank Money Museum.

Several Thefts Are Reported

Several minor thefts, including loss of a toolbox and tools worth $75 by Martin Granados, 611 Galerita Way, Santa Venetia, were reported today by Marin County sheriff's officers.

Granados told deputies the tools were taken in the past two days from a truck parked at his home.

Carl Joseph Harris, 69 Cole Drive, Marin City, reported someone broke into his car parked at his home yesterday, drove the vehicle away by wiring the ignition, then stripped it of four tires and wheels before abandoning it in Marin City.

Theft of 2,500 feet of one-half-inch steel rods for concrete reinforcing was reported by Richard B. Hendley, Lagunitas contractor. He told officers the rods were taken in the past several days from a house-building project in Lagunitas. No value was given.

complaints about leash law enforcement, high telephone bills, failure of the city council to adhere to the master plan, lack of a youth recreation program and a senior citizens' program, and construction trucks breaking up the streets.

The city government came off with a fair rating. Six per cent thought the city had made excellent progress since incorporation in January, 1961. Twenty-seven per cent rated its progress as good; 27 per cent, average; 27 per cent, fair, and 13 per cent, poor.

Although the city council hears many complaints, they represent few of the citizens, the survey showed.

Only 1 per cent reported they regularly attended meetings of public governing bodies. Seventy-five per cent admitted they had never attended a city council meeting; 84 per cent never attended planning commission; 85 per cent never attended school board; 82 per cent never attended recreation commission, and 88 per cent never attended citizen committee meetings.

Cash In Paper Bag Is Reported Lost

Roger F. Shatz of L and R Sundries at MAC Department Store, 555 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, reported to police yesterday that a brown paper bag containing approximately $1,000 in cash and $599 in checks was lost Sunday between the store and his home at 12 Arcangel Way.

The money represented two days' receipts from his department, Shatz said.

Dairy Cow Killed By Armed Vandals

Killing of a dairy cow by vandals with a .22-caliber gun was reported by Kenneth Kehoe, operator of a ranch on Pierce Point Road, near Inverness, Marin County sheriff's office said today.

Kehoe said the cow apparently was killed over the weekend. Four teen-agers in a station wagon were seen in the vicinity, he reported.

Senate Gets Bill On Gallinas Creek

The Assembly today passed and sent to the Senate a bill providing for a swap of land to straighten the approach to the Civic Center lagoon.

The measure, by Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael), would permit the county to exchange some land for tideland along Las Gallinas Creek to straighten the creek and the access to the lagoon.

Assembly Passes Reapportionment Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A bill providing for mandatory redrawing of county supervisorial districts after each federal census was passed by the Assembly today.

A 74-1 lower house vote sent the measure to the Senate.

reported by the Associated Press, included:

1. That the California group endorse the American Medical Assn.'s recent acceptance of a 10-million-dollar research grant from the tobacco industry provided there are no strings attached.

2. That "labor's policy on medical care, which would result in government control and domination of the medical practice, must be due to labor's lack of understanding of medicine's objectives" and that a friendly liaison with labor be established.

3. That fathers be allowed in hospital delivery rooms at the physician's discretion.

4. That doctors be permitted to own pharmacies, now prohibited by state law.

5. That the state stop paying chiropractors in public assistance cases "for services they are neither qualified nor licensed to perform." The resolution said chiropractors received $686,000 in 1961-62 for such cases.

Committee members referred to council a resolution by Dr. A. Justin Williams of San Francisco urging passage of a fair hospital practices act. The resolution charged that hospitals' power to bar doctors from the staff inhibits free expression of political opinion.

HEARING

cisco, which has no obstetrical facilities.

Dr. Dallas L. Wagner, chief of staff of the Marin hospital, read his report to the medical staff, which had voted 74-2 to deny Ascherman privileges.

Wagner stated that Ascherman has filed suits against 22 persons, hospitals and companies "predicated upon an alleged conspiracy among all the defendants to deny Ascherman the right to practice medicine in the designated hospital."

Ascherman said outside the meeting room that the basic reason that he has been refused privileges at four San Francisco hospitals was his support of the Medicare program.

He said the conspiracy arose because he "disparaged the American Society of Internal Medicine as being a lobbying group for the American Medical Assn. against Medicare.

His attorney said that if the board rules against granting privileges after the hearing, "There will be no question that we will follow through in court."

Seven other doctors were granted privileges at Marin General Hospital last night before Ascherman's case arose.

UAW Approves Retirement Plan

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UPI) — The United Auto Workers convention today adopted a plan for compulsory retirement of union President Walter P. Reuther and other UAW officials at or near age 65.

The 56-year-old Reuther, who would have to step aside in about 10 years under terms of the plan, supported it as a way to insure young and vigorous leadership in labor ranks.

"I think some older labor leaders stay on too long and slow up the labor movement when younger leadership is needed," Reuther said before the retirement program was approved.

New Manager For Sausalito Paper

Chester O. Badgley, 58, of Sacramento has been named general manager of the Marin News and Guide in Sausalito, succeeding John Harlan, former owner and publisher.

Badgley is former president of Universal Press in San Jose and formerly published several Sacramento weeklies. He has come out of retirement to take over his new job and has plans to move to Marin County, said George B. Thornhill, owner and publisher of the News and Guide.

HOSPITAL

heliport was planned for landing emergency cases.

In contrast to the usual bare hospital floors, carpeting of major areas is planned.

Also part of the initial construction program would be facilities for care of persons needing acute medical and surgical treatment, full emergency service facilities, and dianostic service units.

BIRTH SERVICES

The expansion of facilities, for which additional land surrounding the original site will be needed, would include obstetrical services, a hospital-based home care program, rehabilitation services, geriatric care, diagnostic center, and outpatient services.

Also in this second phase would be research programs in connection with the development of new methods of treatment and evaluation of existing methods of treatment.

The hospital would be planned as a community health center, as opposed to a county health center. There would be no overlapping of facilities with other Marin hospitals, Burns said.

The present site in downtown San Rafael would either be sold or retained as a downtown branch of the new hospital, according to the letter.

Money On Beach Linked To Lobel

A $5 bill was found this morning near Keil Cove Beach, where the body of Maurice Lobel, 74, of 312 San Rafael Avenue, Tiburon, was discovered Sunday.

The $5 possibly belonged to Lobel, reported Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley.

Lobel has $7 in his wallet when he disappeared from his home last Wednesday, but when the wallet was discovered Monday afternoon on the beach it was empty, Bradley said.

The $5 was found by James Murray of 2486 Mar East, Tiburon, who reported it to the sheriff's office.

3 Boys Nabbed After Gun Shots

Three boys were nabbed by San Rafael police and sheriff's deputies yesterday for allegedly firing a .22-caliber rifle in a field behind Bekins Van and Storage at 24 Bellam Boulevard, San Rafael.

Officer R. A. Douglas of San Rafael police spotted the trio in bushes in the field after Edward A. Fogarty, a warehouseman at Bekins, reported a bullet hit the building.

Since the boys were in county territory, Douglas turned them and their gun over to the sheriff's office.

Two Autos Stolen At San Rafael Lots

Two cars were stolen from car lots along Francisco Boulevard Monday night, according to reports made to San Rafael police yesterday.

A 1964 Austin Healy Sprite roadster was reported stolen from the front row of cars at E. F. Sweeney British Cars, 523 Francisco Boulevard, sometime Monday night.

A 1962 Chevrolet Impala hardtop was stolen from the front row at San Rafael Auto Sales, 513 Francisco Boulevard between 10 p.m. and midnight Monday.

OBITUARIES

Albert H. Fowler, 83, Succumbs

Albert Henry Fowler, 83, of 419 Drake Avenue, Marin City, died apparently of a heart attack at 5:45 p.m. yesterday while watching television at his son's home in Novato.

Fowler, a semi-retired carpenter, was visiting his son, Albert H. Fowler Jr., at 49 Lambert Way when he slumped over, Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley reported.

Fowler had a history of heart disease, Bradley said. An autopsy was to be performed today at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home in Novato.

A native of Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo County, Fowler had been a resident of Marin County for 23 years. He was judge and a charter member of the volunteer fire department in Corcoran, Kings County. He also was a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, Carpenters Union Local 35-1710, and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Marin City.

Surviving are his wife, Goldyn of Marin City; his son; two daughters, Mrs. Burnham Smith of Corcoran, King County, and Mrs. Maudee Anderson of Portland, Ore.; a brother, Cecil Fowler of Stratford, Kings County; a sister, Mrs. May Rutherford of Berkeley, and nine grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Frank J. Keaton Mortuary, Sausalito. Burial will be at Arroyo Grande. The family prefers that memorial contributions be made to the Heart Fund.

Adam Sure Span Chunk Thrown

A small piece of concrete that hit the British liner Oriana as it passed under the Golden Gate Bridge Sunday afternoon was probably tossed off the span by a pedestrian, according to James Adam, manager of the Golden Gate Bridge District.

"It has been established by investigation that the piece, about the size of a duck's egg, was from a sidwalk repair job on the bridge, and it is felt that it was thrown over the railing by a pedestrian," Adam said.

The conrete hit the steel bridge deck of the Oriana as it passed under the span at 4:30 p.m., but caused no injury.

MARY DURBIN

Mary Jane Durbin of 1 Hillview Avenue, San Rafael, a 17-year resident of Marin, died in a local hospital yesterday after a long illness. She was 74 years old.

She was a native of Burnet, Tex., and had lived 22 years in California. She was the wife of Moses D. Durbin Sr., a retired machinist.

They were married July 18, 1909, at Llano, Tex.

She was a member of Battle Mountain Chapter 120, Order of Eastern Star, of Minturn, Colo., and the Methodist Church of Marble Falls, Tex.

In addition to her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Theresa Gerhardt of Woodacre and Mrs. Edwin Conaway of Eugene, Ore.; two sons, Moses D. Durbin Jr. of San Rafael and Eugene C. Durbin of Denver, Colo.; a sister, Mrs. Phoebe Phillips Rankin of San Francisco, 12 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 p.m. Friday at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

E Street School Due Use Five More Years

E Street School will continue to serve San Rafael City Schools for another five years or so.

The San Rafael Board of Education voted last night to rehabilitate the school administrative offices and special service operations at an approximate cost of $33,700.

The project will include demolition of the southwest corner of the building to make way for the extension of Third Street. Demolition work is to be paid by the City of San Rafael.

The present administrative offices at 215 Mission Avenue on the northwest corner of the San Rafael High School campus could be used for warehousing, an adult education office, an audio visual repair center, a maintenance office headquarters, and for photo-offset duplication.

The board's meeting room might be used for an extra classroom during next year's high school construction work, but the board made no decision on this last night.

E Street School this year has housed special service operations and pupils from the Glenwood area. The pupils moved to the new Glenwood School early this month.

There was $120,000 earmarked in the recent bond issue for an addition to the administrative building, but board members have shown some reservation about this in light of the Booz-Allen and Hamilton study on district unification which says the administrative offices for a unified district should be located north of San Rafael Hill.

The board hired engineer Harold M. Engle to design the proposed changes at E Street School.

The San Rafael Board Of Education Also:

1. Rescinded an earlier order that the San Rafael Cooperative Nursery vacate its building on the San Rafael High School campus because the building does not meet the building code requirement of one-hour fire walls. Last night's reversal came after a change in the county counsel's office opinion on liability. The new opinion said continued use of the building would be justified.

2. Approved reassignment of five elementary school principals, to take effect next fall. Virgil Birdsall will become principal of Gallinas School, Edwina Codoni, principal of Coleman, Webster Smith, principal of San Pedro; Mrs. Lee Heise principal of Laurel Dell Intermediate, and William Sewell, principal of Short and Laurel Dell Primary.

3. Approved fourth-year contracts and tenure status for 15 elementary school teachers and 26 high school teachers.

4. Accepted resignations of Sharon Johnson, Marvin M. Lundwall, David Scovill, and Carol Moeller, teachers at Terra Linda High School; Mrs. Marilyn Tate and Patricia Mattox, teachers at MacPhail School; Mrs. Marjorie S. McCament, teacher at Laurel Dell Primary, and Mrs. Jacquelinn Mooney, teacher at Laurel Dell Intermediate. All resignations will take effect June. 30.

5. Hired Mrs. Nancy Birkett, Mrs. Harryette Masonic and Mrs. Thelma H. Preston as elementary school teachers, Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers as a high school English teacher, and Mrs. Sheila Cohen as part-time speech teacher and part-time administrator.

6. Approved sabbatical leave next school year for Mrs. Eve Geiger, elementary district curriculum coordinator, to do graduate work at University of California.

7. Learned that the new Glenwood School will be dedicated in a program at 7:45 p.m., April 22.

8. Accepted with thanks the gift of seven lunch tables with benches from the Laurel Dell Parent-Teachers Assn.

9. Adjourned until 7:30 p.m. Tuesday to consider a list of about 30 architects who have applied to design buildings in the elementary district construction program.

Cranston Names Marin Chairmen

Samual W. Gardiner, Sr. of San Rafael and Mrs. George D. Culler of Mill Valley have been named co-chairmen of the Marin campaign for Alan Cranston for U. S. senator.

They will work with an executive board of 30 Marin Democratic leaders to help Cranston win the nomination on June 2.

Gardiner is a well-known attorney and a member of the county's Democratic Central Committee. He has been active in Democratic politics for more than 40 years.

Mrs. Culler is a member of the Marin Democratic Assembly and the Mill Valley Democratic Club. Two years ago, she was co-chairman of the Marin campaign for Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk.

San Anselmo Still Seeking Rec Specialist

Although San Anselmo city councilmen continued to be skeptical last night about the need to hire a consultant to tell them how to lay out recreation facilities at Memorial Park, they agreed to let City Administrator Douglas Flautt contact two more firms in hope of getting a lower price.

It appeared unlikely they would hire anyone unless the price quoted by the first firm — which seemed to be climbing from week to week—could be slashed considerably.

Councilmen had asked for more information after a previous meeting when the price was quoted as $1,440. In a proposed contract which Flautt read to the council last night, the price was given as $1,500, and the firm also demanded that the city supply a detailed map of the park.

Flautt said the map would cost the city $400 to prepare.

Repeating earlier skepticism on the matter, Councilman Woodrow V. Capurro asked, "Can't the city do it? Why do we need a planner?"

Other councilmen echoed his doubts, but told Flautt they would be willing to talk to two more firms — provided the price was closer to $500.

The San Anselmo City Council also:

1. Approved a one-year agreement with Marin County for dog pound services, although they had earlier hesitated at accepting some conditions of the county's dog ordinance, including raising the annual dog license fee from $3 to $4.

2. Agreed to permit construction of protective canopies for passengers who wait for buses on Center Avenue.

3. Gave J. P. Gresser, owner of the Model Market at 1 Saunders Avenue, permission to knock out a portion of curbing on Center Boulevtrd to permit off-street-parking behind his store. Gresser agreed to pay for finishing the curb alterations. Left turns will not be permitted into or out of the lot, councilmen agreed.

4. Approved a Chamber of Commerce request to hang street banners from March 30 to April 6 to promote a sales event.

5. Allowed the Salvation Army to schedule a musical street meeting on April 5 by City Htll.

6. Transferred funds to supply a $153 fire hydrant at Woodland Avenue and Crescent Road. Flautt said Marin Municipal Water District would not charge the usual $450 to $600 cost for the installation being installed as part of a school project.

7. Postponed its next meeting until April 21, since it would have fallen on the same night as the April 14 election.

'Migrant Worker' Talk Scheduled

A talk on "The Migrant Worker: California's Forgotten People" and the election of officers will be features of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Association's annual dinner meeting next Wednesday at Peacock Gap Country Club, San Rafael.

Out-going president Dr. Richard S. Hahn will introduce the guest speaker, Dr. Paul F. O'Rourke, chief of farm workers' health services for the California Department of Public Health.

Now a resident of Berkeley, Dr. O'Rourke was in private practice in Novato from 1952 to 1959. Subsequently he was director of Imperial County health services and director of preventive medical services for the Community Health Assn. of Northern California.

Dinner will begin at 7:30 p.m. following a social hour. Reservations must be received by the TB association office by noon tomorrow, said Mrs. Geneva Berry, executive secretary.

'Patches' Is New Message Method

KENDALL HILL, Ill. (AP) — The South Pole may be 8,000 miles from Charlie Vannoy's home, but the 35-year-old television engineer is in personal contact with members of "Operation Deep Freeze."

Through radio contact with amateur radio operators in Antarctica, homesick scientists and servicemen are able to speak to relatives and friends through a process called telephone "patches."

"Telephone patches," Vannoy explained, "are made after I receive a radio call requesting the contact of a relative or friend. I call the party by telephone. Then I place my radio receiver near the transmitting equipment enabling the parties to converse."

How To Detect A Filibuster

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) says an unidentified Queens housewife wrote him:

"I never knew what a filibuster was until I read a newspaper article referring to it as a 'talkathon.' Why don't you politicians coin more new words like this so one can understand more of what's going on?"

"I agree," Keating commented on his weekly radio-television show here. "And while we're on the term — filibuster — I'd like to offer a suggestion of my own from the standpoint of one who has to listen tot filibusters.

"Borathon."

San Rafael Chamber Seeks Opinions On General Plan

Directors of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce decided yesterday to give the city planning commission help in finding views of the people on the city's proposed general plan.

President Robert W. F. Severin said the chamber will contact the planning commission, expressing interest in exposing the plan to the public before official action is completed.

Severin stressed the chamber action implied no stand either for or against the plan, but was an effort to bring out the views of downtown merchants and other groups.

Three formal hearings are to be held by the commission. The chamber hopes to hold several unofficial sessions as well.

Chamber directors also:

1. Agreed to ask the United States Chamber of Commerce for help in finding a new manager for the chamber. Seven have applied for the job, but, Severin said this will be the directors' first formal step toward seeking a man.

2. Directed Mrs. Ruth Kendall, chamber secretary, to thank the "Davidson Advertising Agency," a group of 19 pupils at James B. Davidson School, for their efforts in suggesting ways to revitalize San Rafael's downtown area.

Wife Is Charged With Talking To Husband–In Jail

The problem was that the husband, Earl Calvin Westerfield, 39, was in Marin County Jail at the time and the wife, Wilma, didn't have sheriff's office permission for the gabfest.

Deputies said she was observed talking to Westerfield last Sunday from outside the east window of the jail's day room.

Westerfield is charged with grand theft of five head of cattle from the ranch of Dr. James H. Kleiser at 5325 Chileno Valley Road in northwest Marin County, where he has been employed as ranch hand.

Mrs. Westerfield was not in custody at noon today.

State To Auction Novato School Land

The State Division of Highways has anounced it will sell the former Grant School property in Novato at public auction April 9 at 11 a.m.

Minimum bid on the property, which is at Grant Avenue and Highway 101, will be $210,000, the division announced. It was acquired by the state when it was planned to widen Highway 101 on its present route through Novato. A bypass route has since been selected, instead.

Lagunitas To Meet On Frye Successor

Members of the Lagunitas School District board last night set a closed session for 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the county schools office to consider applicants for the post of district superintendent.

Supt. Clifford L. Frye, whose contract will not be renewed June 30, said he believed applications have been screened down to six candidates.

Soon after the board voted 3-2 in December against renewing Frye's contract, there were loud protests in the community as residents flocked to Frye's defense. Since then, recall action was initiated against Mrs. Georgette Vilas, one of the three who voted against renewing the contract.

The school board last night heard but took no action on proposed teacher salaries for next year. The board's professional relations committee recommended a schedule with a starting salary of $5,200 and a top salary of $10,030 a year. Present schedule is $5,000 to $8,800.

The committee consists of two citizens, two teachers, the superintendent and a member of the board.

The board authorized tenure contracts next year for 12 of its 16 teachers. All to receive tenure have been with the district at least two years, Frye said.

Auto Strikes Redwood Trees; Driver Hurt

Richard Kroll, 21, of 27 Harbor Street, San Rafael, was treated for a cut forehead last night at Marin General Hospital after a car in which he was riding hit two redwood trees on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, one-quarter of a mile west of Lagunitas Lodge, at 7:30 p.m.

Kroll was a passenger in a car driven west on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard by Paul Thomas Ringwelski, 20, of the same address. Ringwelski drove off the road on a sharp curve and hit the two trees headon, according to the California Highway Patrol.

In the engine of an eight-cylinder car traveling at 50 miles an hour 136 spark plug firings take place every second.

'FEUDAL LORDS' HIT

Rival Groups Tend To Baffle Teachers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The time has passed for a school administrator to act like a feudal lord; he should accept his teachers as partners, a New York educator said yesterday.

On the other hand, it is disturbing to see "some of the angry young men now leading the teachers become intoxicated with the new-found organizational strength," observed Dr. Bernard E. Donovan.

The executive deputy superintendent of schools in New York City, where teachers staged a one-day strike last fall, told the California Assn. of Secondary School Administrators that with two organizations representing teachers:

"The fierce competitive struggle for the bargaining agent victory will disturb and confuse the teachers. Their relationships to each other often will become strained."

Another speaker, Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus (D-Fresno) said Speaker Jesse Unruh's bill to establish county-wide school districts appears dead "for the moment" but the problem remains.

"There are too many small inefficient districts," he asserted.

William M. McGowan, executive secretary of the school administrators, said the Legislature should remove some of its controls on schools. He said it was ridiculous for the state to require driver instruction for all schools and that all schools offer programs to meet entrance requirements for state colleges and universities.

Cranston Hit For Salinger Statement

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh today bitterly criticized State Controller Alan Cranston for "trying to involve Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy and President Johnson in a fight."

Unruh (D-Los Angeles) said he was referring to a column in the Washington Daily News which quoted Cranston as saying that the speaker and the attorney general had persuaded former White House press secretary Pierre Salinger to enter the race for the Democratic senatorial nomination in California.

"I would like to say the attorney general had nothing to do with Salinger's candidacy and neither did I," said Unruh.

If the column were true, said Unruh, "then I think it is extremely despicable thing for Cranston to say."

Dam Site Yields 2 Indian Villages

OROVILLE (UPI) — State Archaeologist Francis Ridell today reported that he was digging out the remains of two Indian villages near the Oroville dam site on the Feather River.

The first, he said, was about 1,500 years old, which means that its inhabitants were shooting arrows and grinding food about the time that the Roman Empire fell.

The second, he estimated, was 200 years old, which means that its inhabitants were flourishing when American colonists were fighting the French and Indian war.

Both villages belonged to the Midu Indians.

Burns Blasts Rafferty As 'Incompetent'

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Hugh M. Burns today charged Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty had "joined the club" of school administrators —a group he called "incompetent and dishonest."

It was the first time the powerful Fresno Democrat has criticized Rafferty.

"I had thought to myself that here's a man who is going to spark into life a department that has been dead for 25 years," Burns said. "Now he's joined the club and he's just as bad as anyone else."

Burns' blast was touched off by a speech Rafferty made to a convention of high school principals in San Francisco Monday.

Rafferty blasted legislative proposals for educational financing reform.

$75,000 Bay Study Backed In Sacramento

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill setting up a nine-man San Francisco Bay Conservation Study Commission with a $75,000 budget was approved by the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee today.

The measure by Sen. J. Eugene McAteer (D-San Francisco) was sent to the finance committee after adoption of amendments changing the composition of commission members and taking away subpoena powers.

McAteer said the bill will define public interest in the bay.

"We have an obligation to protect the shoreline so that our grandchildren yet unborn can enjoy the facilities of the bay," he said.

But the senator said a moratorium or halt of bay filling is unnecessary at this time.

"I don't think there's a great urgency to slap a moratorium on the public," he said, until the commission makes its study.

Three members of the commission will be appointed by the governor, four by the legislature and two will be members of the legislature under the amended measure.

Grand Duchess Is Abdicating

LUXEMBOURG (UPI) —Grand Duchess Charlotte announced today she will abdicate in November after ruling Luxembourg for 45 years.

Prime Minister Pierre Werner read the grand duchess' abdication letter to a hushed Parliament.

The 68-year-old ruler of this prosperous vest-pocket nation said in the letter she was leaving the throne to her son Prince Jean, 43, who has been performing most of her official duties during the past two years.

Mill Valley Police Find Stolen Auto

A car belonging to Mrs. Dagmar Ziegler of 25 Windward Drive was found by Mill Valley police last night in a ditch in the 900 block of Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Ziegler reported to Corte Madera police that the car had been stolen from the parking lot of the Corte Madera Shopping Center between 7 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Monday.

Prices Paid To Dairymen Will Increase

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Prices paid to dairymen for milk used in manufacturing will increase from 12 to 17 cents per hundred-weight but consumer prices will not be affected, the state announced today.

Director Charles Paul of the State Department of Agriculture said several changes had been made in minimum pricing schedules for dairymen after state-wide hearings earlier this year.

"The increased payments (to dairymen) will not affect the price which consumers pay for fluid milk throughout the state," he said.

One of the changes, he said, will be an increase in the minimum price which distributors pay for market milk used in the manufacture of dairy products such as ice cream and cottage cheese.

The amount of increase will vary in the state's 20 milk marketing areas but most dairymen will receive from 12 to 17 cents per hundred-weight more, he said.

"The amended prices will reflect actual market values of market milk used in processing more closely than the previously effective minimum prices," he said.

Regulations require payment of your California State Income Tax in full by April 15...the same day your Federal Income Tax must be paid. Declaration—and payment—of Estimated 1964 Tax is also due then, and several local and county taxes and assessments come up at roughly the same time. If making all these payments puts a strain on your finances, consider the worry-free solution of a personal loan from Wells Fargo Bank. The loan is easy to arrange at any of the more than 170 Wells Fargo offices. It costs little—and you repay in monthly instalments. Come in and talk it over.

L. L. Purkey Quits Hospital Board Because Of Ill Health

Purkey was not present at the board meeting, nor had he sent in a letter of resignation. However, board chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen said he had received a telephone call from Purkey earlier in the day stating he was resigning effective April 1.

Purkey said his associations with the hospital staff, administration and board had "been of the most pleasant and I will not forget them."

Kettenhofen said, "it is a rather sad thing to receive this."

Purkey was named to the board last Oct. 1, soon after he received a placque from the hospital honoring him for services he rendered in reorganizing personnel and making surveys.

He replaced Dr. Wilson O. Goddard, who resigned from the board in June. Purkey, a former Standard Oil Co. executive, has recently been working as a management consultant.

Suggestions for a replacement will be given to board secretary Marion C. Ibach, Kettenhofen said.

Novato City Seal Is Approved, 3-2

A Novato city seal picturing wickiups and the city hall was approved last night by 3-to-2 vote of the city council.

Dissenting were Councilman Lucile Cannon, who led a petition campaign against the design, and Robert D. Carrow.

Mrs. Cannon presented petitions bearing 225 signatures, asking a simpler design for the city insignia.

The council approved the general design of the seal last Dec. 10, with Mrs. Cannon absent. The seal was on display in the community house during the dedication ceremonies in January.

Alton Lerch, designer of the seal, read a letter declaring the council's decision "will support or undermine the education of our youth now and even a hundred years from now." He also charged Mrs. Cannon with discriminating "against our youth for decades to come by destroying the educational history theme of the Novato city seal."

To this, Carrow replied, "If the future of our youth depends on that seal, we're in trouble."

Councilman Everett Pozzi said he had wanted a city seal ever since he had been on the original city council. In voting for it he said, "At least I've accomplished one thing while being on the council." (His term expires next month, and he is not seeking re-election.)

Before the vote was taken, the council heard letters praising the seal from Frank Galli of 1 Dawes Court, Novato; Mrs. Thomas L. Harris of 79 Buena Vista Avenue, Mill Valley; Parker F. Wood of 845 Belle Avenue, San Rafael; Mrs. Guy Milner of 1629 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, and Mrs. John Machado of 1424 Dawes Street, Novato, all identified as members of the Marin County Historical Society.

Orient Express To Get Signal System

ATHENS (AP) — The famed Orient and Simplon Express will get new signals this year when the Greek State Railways installs an automatic signaling system along the line between Athens and the Greek frontier.

The new system will cost an estimated $550,000.

Planners Against Span Arches

Mill Valley planning commissioners last night went on record against the proposed traffic arches for the Golden Gate Bridge. Objections are on two grounds, said acting chairman Rodric L. Robinson: "Esthetic and safety."

Copies of the commission's resolution will be sent to the Golden Gate Bridge District directors and the Mill Valley City Council.

The commission recommended that the three parcels of land at the northwest corner of Camino Alto and East Blithedale Avenue be rezoned to commercial from its zoning of single family residential with minimum lots of 20,000 square feet.

The vote was 3-2, commissioners Robinson and Edward J. Boessenecker voting "no." Robinson said he objected because he feels commercial zoning will generate too much traffic and "it's poor planning."

The parcels of land are owned by William A. Fleming, Dr. R. B. Hartman, and Victor De Martini.

Commissioners also recommended that the east Mill Valley master plan and new zoning ordinances be among items on high priority in the 1964-65 budget.

Reed Override Taxes Discussed By Board

Override taxes came up again last night as the Reed School District board passed a motion of intent to levy a permissive override tax for health and welfare benefits to the staff.

This was estimated to amount to four or five cents on the tax rate, to return $12,420 to the district, according to Supt. Edward C. Pino.

Pino suggested all employees, certificated and non-certificated, be allocated up to $10 per month to participate in life, income protection and health insurance plans. Twenty-five per cent of the staff now participate in these plans at their own expense, he said.

Trustee Leo Souza suggested district and staff share in each premium, possibly on a half-and-half basis.

The board also heard a report from the merit reward study committee's chairman, Hamilton T. Holt, Jr. It suggested that "lead teachers" be paid more for their heavier instructional responsibility.

Merit reward for superior performance was discouraged by the committee, which emphasized that merit payments would mean redistributing the existing salary budget so "inferior" teachers would be paid below schedule and "superior" teachers above schedule.

The position of principal for Granada Elementary School was established, to pay $11,500 to $13,500 a year on a two-year contract.

Twenty probationary teachers were employed for next school year. Early tenure rights and privileges were extended to Billie Jean Davis and Elisabeth De Carli.

Europe still supports more people to the square mile than any other continent, according to the National Geographic.

Non-Teaching Employees Bill Urged

A statewide merit system required by law for non-teaching school employees "would solve most of our troubles," William H. Stewart, field operations director for the California School Employees Assn., said yesterday afternoon.

Stewart spoke on "New Legislation—How It Affects You" at one of 20 section meetings of an all-day classified employees' workshop at Meadow Park School, Hamilton Air Force Base, sponsored by San Jose School District's Pacheco chapter of CSEA.

MERIT SYSTEM

Assembly Bill 2265, introduced at the last state legislature, would have made a satisfactory merit system applicable to all California school districts, said Stewart. He said CSEA will press again for such a law at the next session.

The association seeks a bill that would do these things, said Stewart:

1. "It would offer reasonable job security—no protection for gold brickers, but it would save the employees from arbitrary or capricious dismissal."

2. "It would offer career opportunities for persons in school service."

3. "It would require a complete set of personnel procedures."

4. "In contested demotions, suspensions or dismissals, the employee would be entitled to a hearing by a fair and impartial hearing body."

In many cases the same board that has fired a person sits as the hearing body, said Stewart.

25% COVERED

Nearly 200 custodians, secretaries and others attended the workshop. Of these nearly 50, mostly women clerical workers, heard the 90-minute talk by Stewart, who said more than 25 per cent of classified school employees, including those in San Francisco and Los Angeles, are covered by a merit system.

Stewart pointed to Assembly Bill 1110, enacted last April, as an accomplishment of CSEA. It empowers school district boards to levy an override tax without an election for employees' health and welfare funds.

The section was presided over by Mrs. Helen Theile, clerk-secretary at Davidson Junior High School, San Rafael.

Diseases Listed In Marin County

Only two Marin County cities, Larkspur and Kentfield, managed last week to be free of cases of streptococcic infections, 34 of which have been reported by the county health department.

There was an equal number of cases of mumps reported in the county last week, nine of which were in San Rafael, seven in Larkspur and Novato and others in Sausalito, Mill Valley, Kentfield and Fairfax.

San Rafael also had the highest number of cases of measles in the county. Of 29 reported cases, San Rafael had 16 and Sausalito four with cases also reported in Mill Valley, Larkspur, Fairfax and Novato.

One case of tuberculosis was reported in Marin City and one case of infectious hepatitis was reported in San Rafael.

Purchase Of Island By Draper Voted

The Marin County Board of Supervisors and the Draper Companies yesterday worked out a system whereby neither may develop Rat Island without the other's approval.

Draper will buy the island from the federal government, deed it to the county, and have it deeded back with a reversionary clause inserted. The land automatically will revert to county ownership if Draper or a successor tries to develop it.

The island, .08 of an acre near China Camp, took up a large part of the supervisors' afternoon discussion, as each side sought to gain control of the speck, expressing fear of what the other might do with it.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr proposed the reversion clause, and Charles H. Clifford, Draper attorney, agreed. Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said he would rather have the reversionary clause name Nature Conservancy, Inc., as the new owner, but went along with Behr's proposal.

The board approved a $2,795 increase in the bedside nursing budget of the health department. Auditor-controller Michael Mitchell said the increase was based on increased expected revenue to the program and the money was needed for the current payroll.

County administrator Alan Bruce said this would presumably be the last increase, because of board action earlier to curtail the program for the rest of this fiscal year.

Public works director Donald R. Frost proposed that the Novato Flood Control Zone pay the $5,000 annual operation costs for two large pumps to be installed after the Scottsdale Subdivision is built in an area now used for ponding.

Chairman William A. Gnoss asked for a delay to be able to discuss the question with the flood control advisory board.

A request that Frederick G. Zelinsky be allowed to build an office building in Tiburon without filing development plans and a master plan was returned to the planning commission. Principal Planner David Van Pelt said he did not feel the adjustment was an example of good planning.

The Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Voted to post the civic center lagoon area as restricted, to stop water skiers from using it.

2. Agreed in the future to refer all recreational use proposals for the civic center and fairgrounds to the parks and recreation commission.

3. Continued to Tuesday the proposed use permit discussion for a sauna bath club near Sabella's Restaurant, Alto.

4. Set a hearing April 14 on proposed 10,000-square-foot estates zoning for Kent Woodlands Unit 14 and part of 15.

5. Approved a use permit for the $400,000 expansion of Ross General Hospital.

6. Denied a lot split for Keith Kuhl, Homstead Valley.

7. Continued to Tuesday the request by Austin J. Parfitt for a use variance allowing boarding homes for the aged in Gallinas Village.

8. Allowed David A. Robart to withdraw a request for a use permit for a riding club in Forest Knolls. The planning commission had approved the request.

9. Warned George Kappas his bond was no longer valid on his leased property in Richardson Bay, but agreed to take no action at this time to evict him.

10. Set a meeting April 14 with Richard Pisani to discuss a proposal to print a map showing existing boundaries of cities and special districts.

11. Referred a request for an additional building inspector to the county administrator and auditor-controller.

12. Set a hearing April 14 on revisions in the county electrical code.

13. Approved a transfer of $400,000 to the general reserve from the capital improvement fund to create a revolving account for payments for Coyote Creek widening right of way. The money will be reimbursed by the state.

14. Approved right of way purchases for the Coyote Creek Project from Joseph M. Herman, $600, .01 acre; John G. Cooper, $520, .007 acre; Wayne David Ellis, $550, .007 acre; Clifford D. Routley, $460, .006 acre; Walter D. Hubbard, $360, .005 acre; Arthur H. Peters, $800, .016 acre; Jack D. Hillman, $4,250, .046 acre, and Patrick E. McHatton, $19,500 for lot at 240 Cardinal Road.

15. Approved as completed the remodeling of the courthouse second floor offices.

16. Approved purchase for $14,514 of right of way from Frederick G. Zelinsky for relocation of Mar West Street, Tiburon.

17. Approved transfer of $30,000 in urban thoroughfare funds from the Third Street West project to the Third Street East project in San Rafael.

18. Called for a meeting April 7 with San Rafael officials to discuss plans for South San Pablo Road widening.

19. Asked for negotiations with officials of Mount Tamalpais and Mount Olivet Cemeteries on the need to increase county payment for indigent burials, but agreed the present county payment of $25 a burial was too low.

20. Approved hiring Priscilla S. Nockerud as deputy clerk, municipal court; Wyman Tong as deputy sheriff, Claire E. Chisholm as intermediate typist clerk and Marian L. Crandall as intermediate account clerk, public works.

21. Approved promotion of James Crabb from programmer I to programmer II, data processing.

22. Ruled that salaries be reviewed annually and the January salary review will be eliminated.

23. Continued until March 31 action on the proposal that court reporters' pay be raised from $35 to $45 per day.

24. Approved consolidation of Mill Valley's $325,000 library bond election with the June 2 primary election.

25. Approved a request from the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce for the use of the county courthouse parking lot for a boat show Sept. 18-19.

26. Proclaimed the week of April 26-May 2 "Invest in America" week in Marin County.

27. Authorized County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom to drop maintenance of fire hydrants in the Drakes Beach Estates area, Point Reyes, which are not required for fire protection in the development.

3 Marin Demos On Yorty Slate

Three Marin County Democrats are among the 160-member delegation which Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty hopes to lead to the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City in August.

On Yorty's list of delegates are Carter G. Cohen and James J. Reilly of San Rafael, and William Cohen of San Anselmo.

Yorty plans to place his slate of delegates on the June ballot in competition with one organized by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Although both slates are technically uncommitted, both Yorty and Brown have said their delegates are pledged to support President Lyndon B. Johnson's nomination.

School Board Meet On 3 Problems

The San Rafael Board of Education last night met in closed session for more than three hours on three different matters.

The board heard an appeal from Dewey Fink of 17 Broadway, Kentfield, a driver education instructor in the high school district. Because he is 65 years old, Fink's contract was not to be renewed on recommendation of Supt. Bert C. Corona.

TENURE ENDS

Under district policy, the board may continue to employ a teacher after the age of 65 on a provisional basis. Fink, with the district, 17 years, had tenure status until he reached 65.

He appeared before the board in closed session to ask for continued employment on provisional status. Corona said the board took no action except to ask for more information on the law.

The board agreed to make an offer to a candidate to fill the vacant post of assistant superintendent of elementary education. He is a school administrator in Northern California, the superintendent reported.

OTHER OFFERS

Corona said the man has other offers before him. He will not be identified until and if he accepts the San Rafael job, Corona said.

In further closed session discussion, the board talked about Corona's status under a new state law which gives the board the option of having personnel with four-year contracts on provisional status for the first three years. Under this law, Corona would soon be eligible for tenure status.

The session broke up at 12:15 a.m. today.

Tool Room Entered

Lawrence Brown told Mill Valley police yesterday that someone had broken a rear window of the tool room in his garage at 10 Plymouth Circle, gained entry, left some blood stains on the floor, and departed apparently without having taken anything. The incident occured between Sunday and yesterday, Brown said.

San Rafael Planners Ask Planted Cuts, Fills

The San Rafael Planning Commission approved one final and two tentative subdivision maps last night with the requirement that cuts and fills be planted and the hope that underground utilities are installed.

It approved a tentative map of 93-lot Seaview Heights, on San Pedro Road east of Glenwood Units 1 and 2, with planting as one of the conditions. It also urged the owners, Billings-Hutchinson Co., subdividers, and Redmond and Walters Co., to consider underground or semi-underground utilties.

Commissioners approved a final map of a portion of the Seaview Heights map, a 31-lot subdivision to be known as Glenwood 3-A, an extension of Castlewood Drive in Glenwood Unit 1. Marin Title Guaranty Co. is the owner.

They also approved a tentative map of Glenwood Forest Unit 1, a 61-lot subdivision, north and east of Glenwood Unit 2, presented by Perma-Bilt Enterprises, owner and subdivider.

The scope of the commission's authority regarding architectural approval was challenged by L. E. Weisenburg Jr., who said architectural control is being confused with esthetics.

Weisenburg protested after the commission postponed to April 14 action on his request for architectural approval of a 40-unit apartment on Canal Street opposite Larkspur Street pending further study by the planning staff.

"I don't know what needs more consideration," Weisenburg said. The building will meet all the requirements and "it's not going to be a shoddy, half-baked program," he declared.

The San Rafael Planning Commission Also:

1. Granted architectural approval for a 10-unit apartment at the northwest corner of Woodland and Mariposa avenues for B and T Construction Co., on condition that the applicant pave half of Mariposa Avenue, a private road.

2. Granted Bianco Motors Inc. architectural approval for an illuminated, non-flashing identification sign at the southwest corner of Fourth and E streets, standing 35 feet high.

3. Granted architectural approval for a six-unit apartment on Marion Court, between Sonoma and Canal streets, sought by Crown Development Co.

4. Granted Kunst Brothers a permit for an office, warehouse and paint shop on Belvedere Street, east of Alto Street, and gave architectural approval to the proposed commercial building at the site.

5. Granted architectural approval for an illuminated sign atop an existing tower at 806 Irwin Street, sought by Shamrock Dodge Agency.

6. Set for April 14 at 7:30 p.m. public hearing on an application by Harry Seiler to permit a four-unit apartment in a commercial zone at 2122 Fourth Street, between West Crescent Drive and Alexander Avenue.

7. Denied a variance sought by J. Harry Goff to permit a five-foot side setback for a carport instead of the required 10-foot setback at 110 Linden Lane.

Wheat-Cotton Bill Foes Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman lashed out today at the House Republican Policy Committee and the American Farm Bureau Federation for opposing the administration wheat-cotton bill now tied up in the House.

He told a news conference the Republicans obviously are motivated by partisan politics.

He said the farm bureau is engaged in an effort to turn city consumers against farmers.

$4,000 Blaze

PASO ROBLES (UPI) — About 75 tons of sacked charcoal briquets caught fire last night in a warehouse one mile east of here, causing approximately $4,000 damage.

Dixie Board Meeting To Open Bids

Trustees of the Dixie School District will meet tonight to again open bids for construction of Nova Albion School. The project calls for six regular classrooms, a special classroom for the mentally retarded, a remedial classroom, two kindergartens, a library and administrative offices.

Bids were opened on Feb. 26 but were all above the architect's estimate.

The board will also discuss starting work on plans for a new school in the upper Lucas Valley. Plans for the program at the new Miller Creek School will also be on the agenda.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis is expected to make recommendations for appointments of principals of the Santa Margarita and Miller Creek schools.

Trustees will discuss whether to hire a second librarian and an additional part-time speech therapist, and whether to begin a full foreign language program this fall.

3-Month-Old Child Found Suffocated

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Victoria Woodard, 3 months, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodard was found suffocated in her crib at dawn today.

The coroner's office said the father had placed a full-size blanket in the crip at 3 a.m. because the room was cold. The child apparently became entangled in the covers.

BOARD TO LEASE PORTABLE ROOMS

San Rafael Education Unit Moves To Avoid Transporting Students

The San Rafael Board of Education agreed last night to lease enough portable classrooms to avoid transporting about 60 Davidson Junior High School Students to Santa Venetia Junior High School next fall.

Two months ago, Supt. Bert C. Corona said he saw no way to avoid the transfers to balance teacher-pupil ratios in the two schools. This year there are an average of 21 pupils per teacher at Santa Venetia and 27 pupils per teacher at Davidson.

Members of the board, however, decided last night to provide five portables at Davidson next year instead of the two proposed earlier. Corona said this, along with normal growth at Santa Venetia, will equalize the teacher-pupil ratios.

This discussion came up before awarding contracts for lease of 11 portables and purchase of four. The board voted to award the contracts for both lease and purchase to American Modulux Co.

The firm offered a bid of $3,700 a year per unit on lease and $11,654 for sale of portables. Business Manager Charles L. Condrotte recommended acceptance although Hamann Co. of San Diego bid $2,418 for lease of a building. Condrotte said that the Hamann building did not have approval of the State Division of Architecture, a requirement of bid specifications.

Mayflower Trailer Co. offered a $11,208.14 per unit price on its portables, but Condrotte said the firm would not comply with delivery dates asked and insurance requirements.

Eight portables will be used at San Rafael High School during the construction program there next year. One will be used at Sun Valley School, one at Laurel Dell Intermediate, and five at Davidson.

The district may have to lease 12 classrooms rather than 11 to provide another room at Davidson for the educationally handicapped program.

Beatles Expected In Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —The Beatles have reserved the Cow Palace for an August performance, A San Jose businessman said yesterday.

Paul Catalana, who owns a night club and a chain of drive-in theaters, said he expects a contract to arrive within a week that will bind the British singing sensations to an appearance on Aug. 18 or 20.

Supervisors Against Arches On Gate Span

They voted unanimously to notify directors of the Golden Gate Bridge District they "would be unhappy" if the arches are installed.

"I strongly object to arches," said Supervisor Peter H. Behr. "They're architectural and engineering abortions."

Bridge district directors have called for plans for arches to control traffic flow on the span during peak hours, replacing the rubber cones now placed on the roadway to channel cars.

Supervisors voted 4-1 to endorse the San Francisco Department of Public Works recommendation regarding circulation of bridge traffic in the Marina area. It includes making Bay Street a reversible, one-way street.

The board authorized Arthur T. Knutson, assistant director of the Marin County public works department, to attend a meeting of the San Francisco County supervisors Tuesday when the traffic recommendation will be considered.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman abstained because he felt the matter out of the jurisdiction of the Marin supervisors and "we shouldn't try to interfere."

Granite is the oldest stone known to man.

Welfare Script Proposal Bypassed By Supervisors

Marin County supervisors bypassed a proposal yesterday that welfare recipients using script should receive merchandise at cost.

P. J. Rowland, president of the Marin County Taxpayers Assn., said a saving of about 20 per cent could be effected if purchases were made at a discount.

Rowland suggested a voluntary arrangement with merchants who would honor script from welfare recipients on a cost basis.

"The money given welfare recipients is taxpayers' funds, and I can see no reason whatever why merchants should be able to profit on such expenditures, and I am sure that they would agree to such a proposition," he said.

Supervisor George Ludy said the merchants are "big taxpayers" and are entitled to make a legitimate profit. Other supervisors agreed they did not see the merit of the proposal, and Rowland's letter was filed.

Corte Maderan Gets Suspended Sentence

Emil Joseph Ramorino, 42, of 536 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, was given a 30-day suspended jail sentence yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for assault and battery on his wife, Jayne Merle.

#1 LARKSPUR PLAZA—HIGHWAY 101 IN THE HEART OF LARKSPUR

Proceedings Started For Novato Units

The Novato City Council last night started proceedings to establish a two-million-dollar assessment district for the Scottsdale Development.

The council passed a resolution of intention to form a maintenance district within the assessment district, at suggestion of Edwin N. Ness, assessment district attorney.

Tentative plans call for 1,500 apartment units in the area south of Yukon Way, east of South Novato Boulevard, west of Highway 101 and north of the Crossroads shopping Center.

Lawrence A. Coleman, public works director said he would not sign the engineering reports until other districts involved had signed.

Donald R. Frost, county public works director, representing the Novato Flood Control District, said pumps and plans for the Scottsdale Development were satisfactory, but there was some question on the downstream channel. He said he would not sign for the flood control district until this was solved.

Harry Heifetz et al own the property. Mrs. Mary Summers, former county planning director, has planned the subdivision.

The council also voted $600 for studies by William R. Zion of Lafayette on the feasibility of Loma Verde and the McGraw-Hill Book Co. property annexing to the city.

The Novato City Council also:

1. Approved a $14,250 gasoline tax allocation for a foot bridge over Novato Creek at Grant Avenue.
2. Accepted the improvements on Cerro Vista Unit 1 on Olive Avenue at Railroad Avenue.
3. Received a petition signed by residents asking that the service lane behind the Mission Lodge be repaired. The council instructed Coleman to submit such a project for next year's budget.
4. Agreed to have city streets crews remove a popular tree on South Novato Boulevard near Midway Boulevard.
5. Ordered "Yield Right of Way" signs on Reichert Avenue giving traffic on Lamont Avenue the right of way at that intersection.
6. Returned to the planning commission for further study a request by Richard A. Maldonado for a nursery sales office at 1751 Novato Boulevard. It was earlier denied by the commission.
7. Approved a permit for a mortuary for Ralph E. Gillett at 1801 Novato Boulevard.
8. Passed an ordinance rezoning from single to multiple family property of Russel D. Zenk at De Long and Reichert avenues; a lot owned by Lawrence Development Co. south of De Long on Reichert; a lot owned by Milton Rodoni at 1040 Third Street, and rezoning from single family to commercial to west side of First Street from the business district to Vallejo Avenue.
9. Asked the staff to arrange for a meeting with a representative of the Assn. of Bay Area Governments as requested by the parks and recreation commission.
10. Adjourned to April 7 with the understanding that it would not meet on April 14, the regular meeting date, because of the city elections that day.

Restrictions Put On U.S. Envoys

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) —The Communist government today ordered travel restrictions on U. S. diplomats stationed in Poland, a U. S. Embassy spokesman said today.

The spokesman said Poland ordered the action in a note handed to embassy Counsellor Albert W. Sherer Jr., yesterday. The note said the move resulted from restrictions placed on movements of Polish diplomats in the United States late last year.

The polish note also said restrictions on U. S. diplomats here would be lifted if the United States lifted the travel ban on Polish diplomats.

Missile Blows Up After Its Launching

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—A Minuteman intercontinental ballistic missile exploded today shortly after it was launched.

The Air Force said the cause of the explosion was not known. No other details were given.

Novato Council Passes 50 New Street Lights

Fifty street lights were approved last night by the Novato City Council at its annual spring review of requests for street lights.

The council also set a new policy to review street light requests quarterly instead of semi-annually. It will also require a master street lighting plan with each new subdivision in the future.

Subdivisions came in for the biggest share of the new lights. Only six were turned down by the council lighting committee.

Novato Hills subdivision will get 16 new lights; Pleasant Valley, 11; Cerro Vista, four; Rancho Village, four, and Marin Country Club Estates, three.

Single lights were granted in front of the Presbyterian Church on Wilson Avenue and at 1607 Center Road, 1665 Center Road, 1336 Monte Marie Avenue, Fire Station No. 2 on South Novato Boulevard, poles 681 and 659 on Midway Boulevard, and lot 218 on Midway Boulevard.

The lighting committee rejected requests for four more lights in the Novato Hills subdivision and one more in Rancho Village.

Kenney Gets Continuance On Tax Case Plea

Former Sausalito Mayor George E. Keeney, 58, accused of evading federal income tax, won a two-week continuance today before he pleads to the charge.

Judge Albert C. Wollenberg of the U. S. District Court in San Francisco set 10 a.m. April 9 as the next court date for Keeney.

Keeney's attorney Nathan Cohn asked for a delay this morning because he (Cohn) is involved in another trial. Cohn also indicated he expects to make some motions to quash the federal indictment.

A U. S. Grand Jury accused Keeney of failing to pay $7,282 in taxes from 1957 through 1959. Keeney, now a liquor salesman, was former assistant to the president of Bechtel Corp. He was on the Sausalito City Council for 16 years.

Heavy Housing Bias Near Camps Reported

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Racial discrimination in housing exists in 90 per cent of communities near military facilities in the United States with more than 500 assigned personnel, according to reports to the Pentagon by military base commanders.

An official of the defense department's civil rights office in making the disclosure today told newsmen that off-base discrimination in public accommodations also was reported at about half the 305 U.S. installations which answered questionnaires.

Woman In Roommate Slaying Will Talk

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Jean Marie Toman, accused of the slaying of her 21-year-old roommate, Elinor Kahn, has agreed to talk to two court-appointed psychiatrists.

Mrs. Toman, 35, had previously refused to permit any sort of examinations by Dr. Walter Rappaport and Dr. John F. Card, the two court-appointed psychiatrists.

Board Comments On Jury Recommendations

Marin County supervisors commented briefly yesterday on two recommendations by the 1963 Grand Jury, one on redistricting and the other on taxes in the Sausalito School District.

The grand jury recommended that the supervisors proceed with redistricting of supervisorial districts.

The board redistricted Jan. 31 and the intent is to make further revision to more nearly equate the district populations, said Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker.

The grand jury said the Sausalito School District should appeal to the supervisors "for relief from the inequities in the school taxes of that district resulting from the creation of low cost housing and the slow redevelopment of housing in Marin City."

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he believes there are inequities and the board should be willing to explore them during budget sessions, and perhaps meet with the Sausalito school board.

Supervisors said it was the responsibility of the school board to make clear the reported inequities.

Famed English Spa Gives Way To Health Service

HARROGATE, England (AP)—Harrogate, the spa where gouty duchesses once went to take mud baths in water containing a mixture of sulphur and Yorkshire moorland peat, may soon be a spa no more.

It has long lost the fame it enjoyed in Queen Victoria's day when it was a center for ritual health treatment of the liverish upper classes. But until now it maintained a steady trade with patients sent by the welfare state's National Health Service.

The Health Service has decided to pay no more for spa treatment at Harrogate. After March 31, 1968, it will provide its own concentrated services in a hospital for selected cases, especially working people suffering from rheumatism whose livelihood is at stake.

Since the Health Service now provides 90 per cent of the customers for Harrogate's Royal Baths, a special committee has been set up by the town to decide what should be done.

Prepares Family Before Leaving

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Alex Alpers took no chances before leaving for a tour of Israel.

Each day for two weeks before the trip, she watched critically from the next room while her husband and two young daughters went through the routine of preparing breakfast and tidying up the apartment.

"I wanted to make sure they would know what to do while I was gone," she said.

Horses Dedicate Reno City Hall

RENO (AP) — City officials decided on a different kind of groundbreaking for Reno's new city hall since it was the first big construction project to get started in the area during Nevada's centennial as a state.

The first earth was turned by a plow pulled by Tom and Sally, a team of bay work horses, with Mayor Hugo Quilici and City Manager Joe Latimore at the reins.

JUNIOR MISS—Linda Felber of Colfax, Wash., winner of America's Junior Miss of 1964 crown in Mobile, Ala., Saturday, arrived in New York City yesterday. The 18-year-old winner received a $6,000 college scholarship. She hopes to eventually go into the theater or work in anthropology. (AP Wirephoto)

X-Ray Gear Offer Made To County

The Marin Hospital District board last night decided to hand its minifilm chest X-ray equipment over to the county health department immediately if the board of supervisors agrees to buy it for $750.

The supervisors would not have to make the money available immediately, the hospital board agreed. A written committment to buy the equipment would be sufficient.

It developed at the board meeting that the equipment has been operated in a potentially hazardous location in the hospital. Since it is not located in a lead-lined room, patients and personnel have to be evacuated from the emergency ward when it is put into use.

Harold F. Riede, attorney for the district, on hearing this, said "use of the equipment should be terminated immediately if it is hazardous."

Administrator William W. Turner said the equipment itself is not hazardous. "It is only hazardous if the area is not vacated," he said.

Dr. Richard S. Hahn, president of the hospital's staff and of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn., said the equipment was operated in this manner because it was needed by the community. He said 10,000 minifilms had been taken last year.

Hahn said the association "was vitally interested" in the transfer to the county medical department of the equipment, part of which was bought by the association and turned over to the hospital.

Operation of the machine is now being paid for by the county, which uses it to test food handlers and teachers.

The Marin Hospital District Board also:

1. Approved an organizational study of the medical staff by a management consultant firm, with Turner to recommend which firm.
2. Approved hiring a director of volunteers to guide the in-service volunteer program with the salary range to be $440-570.
3. Agreed to try more "behind the scenes maneuvering" with the California Public Utilities Commission and the Greyhound Co. to get bus service to Marin General Hospital, rather than request a hearing before the commission at this time.
4. Agreed to hire the firm of Coates, Herfurth and England, consulting actuaries, to do further study on a retirement program for hospital employees for between $750 and $1,000.
5. Approved raising the monthly retainer for Riede from $300 to $500.
6. Agreed to construct a retaining wall along the walkway from the lower parking lot, with board member Charles A. Rowe abstaining from the vote because of lack of information.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Addition Of Del Crandall Makes S.F. Catching Well Above Average

CONNOLLY

The acquisition of catcher Del Crandall makes Giant catching well above the league average. Tom Haller has "arrived" and with Crandall as his teammate, the association could make for better and smarter action. Over a period of 10 years, Crandall has been the league's best receiver. He's a right-handed hitter and occasionally raps the long ball. He is younger by a few years than Ed Bailey, whom the Giants traded, so the age factor doesn't count.

Rookie catchers are plentiful. Bob Barton, for instance, has a big chance. He's in the Army now but the dope is that he'll be out next month. Last year at Tacoma in 112 games he hit .302. He bats righthanded, drove in 36 runs, including 6 home runs. He's 22 years of age, a six-footer and hits the scale around 180 pounds.

Randy Hundley, for whom $90,000 was shelled out as a bonus, was a disappaintment until last year when he found himself in El Paso, hitting 23 home run, batting .325 and driving in 81 runs. He may need another year.

The nice part about having a receiver like Crandall is that he knows all the National League hitters and is fairly well informed on the pitchers on the various clubs. Crandall not only can help Haller, but he is expected to be a big lift to all Giant pitchers. He is particularly well informed on the two new Giant hurlers, Bob Shaw and Bob Hendley, who were his teammates at Milwaukee.

IT SEEMS a bit odd, in a way, that Crandall should come to the Giants the very same year that Alvin Dark, manager, is rumored to be headed for the south with Houston. No one is better qualified nor more anxious to become a manager than Crandall. He may have found the right spot. Surely the most important technique needed by the Giants is someone who can get some winning ball out of a fine array of young pitchers.

The surplus rookie talent slops over from pitching to the outfielders. Four such promising youngsters are with S.F. One is Chuck Peterson who either has to remain or be sold. The Giants have been trying to hatch him for four years, so it's do or don't for him this season. Three other kids rate serious consideration. One is Dick Dietz, who was converted to an outfielder after he flopped as a catching prospect. Dietz hit 35 home runs at El Paso playing in 134 games for an average of .354.

ARLO ENGEL, also an outfielder, hit 41 home runs in the same league in 133 games and an average of .320. Engel is a fine fielder and while he strikes out a lot, makes up for it with the long ball. Jose Cardenal, also an El Paso beauty, hit .312 in 125 games and belted 36 home runs.

However, among the rookies there isn't much room on the Giant roster, except for Peterson. The others no doubt will be farmed out again.

MY GUESS of rookies who will open the season with the Giants are Jim Hart, Jesus Alou, Chuck Peterson, Gil Garrido, Ron Herbel, Bob Garibaldi, and maybe Barton or Cardenal. It'll be interesting to watch them from now on.

Liston—'A Neurotic About His Health'

Independent-Journal Sports

Wed., March 25, 1964

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Jack Nilon testified today that Sonny Liston is "neurotic" about his health. But he said the dethroned champion was fit for his title fight with Cassius Clay and should have won it.

"I still believe that Cassius Clay is no match for Sonny Liston," said Nilon, who was Liston's manager in all but name for the Miami fight.

He said Liston, after "dogging it" through pre-fight training, "was not in the condition he should have been in."

Liston's personality and the financial arrangements for the title fight figured in Nilon's testimony before the senate anti-trust subcommittee. The subcommittee is considering legislation to regulate boxing promotions.

Subcommittee chairman Philip A. Hart (D-Mich.), asked Nilon about the circumstances under which Liston failed to answer the bell for the seventh round because of an arm injury and thus lost his heavyweight title to Clay in a stunning upset.

"Sonny Liston, in my opinion, you could almost say is a neurotic," Nilon said, recalling that Liston might have "broken a leg" after he stepped on a stone in Las Vegas and "in Florida, he caught a cold he died—he was dying."

Nilon said he thought Liston showed "just a trace of bursitis" while a panel of physicians unanimously agreed that a torn muscle and subsequent hemorrhaging in the arm made Liston unfit to continue the fight.

Nilon said he thought X-Rays would have changed the "neurotic" judgment had he known that a "Dr. Bennett"—the doctor Liston trusted—had been administering cortisone, as has since been reported.

Nilon said that would have not changed his opinion and "I do not believe there was anything wrong with Sonny Liston."

Nilon said Liston complained of hurting his left arm in the first round but that he paid no attention until the injury became "quite obvious" as the fight progressed.

He said it now appears that the hemorrhage plus the tight taping of Liston's gloved hand gave Liston the sensation that his hand was swollen and that he could not close it.

Nilon said he and other Liston aides kept hoping "that Sonny would hit him (Clay) with a 'bomb' and it would be all over, but he just wasn't good enough to put the boy away.

Liston was described in the testimony yesterday as a financially fuzzy individual who signed away more than half his earnings from his losing bout with Clay.

But Garland D. Cherry, a Chester, Pa., lawyer, testified that Liston still was treated more generously from a money standpoint than any heavyweight champion in history.

TOURNAMENT TO FIND CLAY CHALLENGER?

NEW YORK (AP)—All four contenders invited to participate in an elimination tournament to determine a challenger for heavyweight champion Cassius Clay are enthusiastic over the project, a spokesman for the New York Athletic Commission said today.

"All four—Doug Jones, Eddie Machen, Cleveland Williams and Floyd Patterson—told us by telephone or wire that they were all for the tournament," the spokesman said.

"Jones, Williams and possibly Patterson will appear at the commission meeting Thursday," he added. "Machen is in California and said it was doubtful he would attend."

Giants Starting Lineup Batting At .381 Clip

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—As a team, the eight players manager Alvin Dark plans to field behind pitcher Juan Marichal on opening day of 1964 are hitting a phenomenal .381 in the Cactus League this spring.

As the Giants won their 14th in 18 games with a 9-8 verdict over Cleveland in the wind and rain at Tucson yesterday, Orlando Cepeda crashed a three-run homer, rookie Jim Ray Hart went three for four and in general the San Francisco contingent continued the rat-a-tat that's been their spring theme.

Most of the regulars saw only limited duty as Dark wanted more looks at his rookies and had the advantage of seeing them in winds comparable to those at Candlestick Park in San Francisco.

Hart's production put the third baseman at .378 for the spring and insured him the opening day job. Shortstop Jose Pagan is low man at .282, second baseman Jim Davenport is hitting .360 and Cepeda at first at a .395 clip.

Outfielders Willie McCovey at .486, Willie Mays at .405 and rookie Jesus Alou at .386 boost the average. Catcher Tom Haller has hit at .359.

Most of the big hitting has been against American League opposition, but the Giants play in the National League during the regular season.

Today the Giants faced the Chicago Cubs, a National League entry which has whipped them twice in four tries.

Cepeda's homer came in the first inning at wind whipped Tucson against Sam McDowell, a left-hander who collected a bonus of $70,000 or so to sign with the Tribe.

Cepeda received the sign he wanted when Dark let him hit away on a count of three balls and no strikes and two runners on base.

Delightedly, Orlando crashed the cripple over the left field fence.

Bob Shaw pitched five innings for San Francisco and the ex-Brave didn't look as strong as previously this spring. He gave up six runs on 10 hits and walked three.

He preserved his own triumph with a single in the fifth that broke up a 6-6 tie and sent San Francisco ahead to stay. And the right-hander finished his stint on the mound in the fifth by setting down three Tribesmen in order including Larry Brown and Pitcher Tom Kelley on strikes.

Marin 'Cats Win Practice Game, 5-4

Marin Catholic nipped Bishop O'Dowd 5-4 yesterday in a practice baseball game at Oakland, but three other scheduled matches were called off because of rain and wet grounds.

Terra Linda's game with Analy, Novato's game with Montgomery and Redwood's doubleheader at Sacramento were all called off.

Marin Catholic scored three runs in the last inning to gain its victory over O'Dowd. Two of those runs were due to key errors by O'Dowd. Each team made five errors in a sloppy game.

Big hitter for Marin was Jim Langbehn who collected a triple and a single in four trips to the plate. One of the winning runs in the seventh inning was scored after a double by Bob Redding, who also made some sparkling defensive plays in the outfield.

Winning pitcher for the M.C. Wildcats was Dave Beswick.

Five-Team Swim League Formed In Marin County

A Marin County swimming league of five clubs has been formed to provide a series of dual meets this summer.

A tentative schedule calls for five dual meets and a final five-team meet to be hosted by the Tiburon Peninsula Club. Meets will feature competitive swimming for boys and girls 7 through 14.

Participating clubs and their representatives are: Las Gallinas Aquatic Club, Jayne and Lyle Cullet; Rafael Racquet Club, Joyce and Robert O'Connell, Grace Milan and Hal Wagner; Strawberry Swim Club, Arno Rayner, Alfred Goldberg and Daniel McNeil; Terra Linda Swim Club, Richard Conzelmann; Tiburon Peninsula Club, Helen Issel, Willard and Bill Anderson.

A meeting has been set for April 30 at the Tiburon club to complete league plans. The league will not be associated with the AAU.

State Drag Finals Scheduled Sunday

Postponed by rain, the final round of the California State Drag Championships has been reset for Sunday at the Cotati Dragstrip.

Under the sanction of the National Hot Rod Assn., the speedfest will feature the nation's top speed-burners in 71 competitive classes in the dragster and super stock categories.

In the semi-finals last Saturday, Don Garlits of Tampa, Fla., and Art Malone of Miami, Fla., posted the fastest qualifying times. The finals, scheduled for the following day, were rained out and rescheduled for this coming Sunday.

20-6 Cage Record

St. Anselm's eighth grade Catholic Youth Organization basketball team finished the season with 20 wins and 6 losses. Jim O'Donnell with 257 points and Don Alvarado with 254 led the team in scoring. Alvarado was the team rebound leader with 283.

Curtis Swimmer Wins 1st Place

Jim Morris of the Ann Curtis Swim Club won first place in the 50-yard breaststroke for boys 11 and 12 in the Palo Alto Athletic Club "A" swim meet last weekend.

Morris had a time of 33.8, just two-tenths of a second off the Pacific Assn. of the AAU record. Jim also placed third in the 100-yard breaststroke.

In the San Francisco Recreation and Park Department "B" swim meet, medal winners for the Curtis swimmers included Ken Luba, Bill Cuneo, Ben Edmands, Ronda Gotti, Madge Tufts, Susie Cuneo and Tim Bennett.

Florida Derby Slated April 4

HALLANDALE, Fla. (AP) — Some of the best 3-year-olds in training are expected to take part in the $100,000 added Florida Derby on Saturday, April 4.

This year the race comes one month after Hialeah's Flamingo Stakes and precedes the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs by one month.

Seals Win Playoff Opener 6-4; 2nd Game Tomorrow

PORTLAND (UPI) — The San Francisco Seals played like the defending Western Hockey League champions rather than a lacklustre fourth place finisher in their semi-final playoff opener here last night.

The Seals, who played below .500 hockey this season after winning the title last year, exploded for four goals in the second period to score a 6-4 decision over Portland in the first of a best-of-seven series.

Portland grabbed a 3-2 lead in a wild first eight minutes as Ray Cyr and Wayne Connelly scored for the Seals and Dick Van Empe hit a pair for Portanl and Bob Ertel tallied one.

The pace simmered down a bit until the second stanza when Connelly, Len Haley, Charlie Burns and Eddie Panagabko all blinked the red light for the Seals.

Bob Perreault blocked 22 in the Seals' nets and played well once he overcame his early-game lapses. Dave Kelly stopped 25 for Portland, but the rookie net-minder has had far better nights.

San Francisco returns to Portland Thursday night. But even if the Bucks win, the following three games take place at the San Francisco Cow Palace, where the Seals have played well all year.

Howard Will Report To Dodger Camp

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers have won the "war" with slugger Frank Howard but the "mopping up" operation may yet pose some problems.

Dodger vice president E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi announced last night that the massive, 27-year old Howard had solved his personal problems and decided to play this year but added, "we can't guarantee anyone will play every day although as of now Howard is our right fielder."

150 GAMES

In Green Bay, Wis., however, Howard said, "I feel I can do a good job for the Dodgers if I can play 150 games this season."

Is the difference between what Bavasi and Howard are saying minor or major? The answer may come Friday when Howard is slated to arrive at Vero Beach and discuss his contract with Bavasi. Both men seemed to dismiss money as an issue last night but the amount of time Howard plays — the original stumbling block in their negotiations — could still be a problem.

"I never sign my contract until Buzzie and I talk," commented Howard when the subject of his contract arose. "Buzzie has always been more than fair to me. There has been no trouble in the past and I do not expect there will be any when we meet."

WEIGHS 255

Howard added that he weighs about 255 pounds — 15 more than his playing weight — and "I'll be ready to play in a week — my weight is no problem."

"He hasn't signed but he's got a contract in his pocket," said Bavasi. "I'd say that he merits a raise. He's too big not to get one."

Manager Walt Alston said the 6-foot, 7-inch former Ohio State All America basketball player and $108,000 bonus player will get "every opportunity to play" but pointed out, "we are not gonna play him if he goes 0-for-20."

NO PRESSURE

Bavasi insisted that the personal problems which caused Howard to announce his retirement in a letter 10 days ago had been cleared up without pressure from the Dodgers.

"Knowing the boy as I do, I think he was sincere when he wrote us a letter saying he wanted to give up baseball," said Bavasi. "But he was emotionally upset. At times I think he takes himself too seriously. I had absolutely nothing to do with him solving his problem. We let him make up his own mind."

Warriors Change Date For Playoff Opener

The San Francisco Warriors have postponed until next Wednesday the start of the final playoff series in the National Basketball Assn.'s Western Division.

The Warriors had originally announced the best-of-seven series would open next Tuesday at the Cow Palace. But that date conflicted with the San Francisco Seals playoff schedule in the Western Hockey League.

So the Warriors moved the game back a day and changed the location to the University of San Francisco gym. The second game is set for two days later, April 5, at the Cow Palace.

The only remaining question is the Warriors' opponents in the series. The St. Louis Hawks hold a 2-0 edge over the Los Angeles Lakers in their best-of-five series for the right to oppose the Warriors in the division finals.

The Warriors, by virtue of finishing first in the division in the regular season, will have the home court advantage if the playoff goes beyond four games.

The third and fourth games will be played at St. Louis or Los Angeles. The fifth and seventh games, if necessary, will be in San Francisco, with the sixth game, if necessary, at Los Angeles or St. Louis.

The Hawks can wrap up their playoff series with the Lakers with a victory tonight and thus assure themselves of a full week of rest before meeting the Warriors.

674 Series Tops Action

OAKLAND (AP) — Johnny Guenther of Seattle got off to a solid start in his campaign in the American Bowling Congress Tournament classic all-events yesterday when he rolled a 674 series in the team event.

The 28-year-old pro, one of the few top-ranked proceffionals to compete during Easter Week, was to shoot his doubles and singles today in an effort to overtake first place Norm Meyers of Los Angeles who piled up a nine-game total of 1,973 over the weekend.

Despite Guenther's 225-227-222 saries, his Kenmore Lanes team totaled only 2,927, not enough to challenge the leaders.

Miller Metal of Albuquerque turned in yesterday's top performance in the regular team event, an 11th place 2,941 series.

All-Coast Vancouver of Seattle leads the regular team standings with a 3,055 series rolled over three weeks ago.

Hawks Dominate All-Star Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Scrappy Stan Mikita, the individual scoring leader, and four other members of the Chicago Black Hawks were named today to The Associated Press National Hockey League All-Star team for the 1963-64 season.

Mikita, a center, led the NHL in total points with 89, two more than Hull, who led in goals with 43.

Montreal Picked To Win National Hockey Playoffs

TORONTO (AP) — Oddsmakers in this hockey stronghold have installed the National League champion Montreal Canadians as 8-5 betting favorites to end Toronto's two-year Stanley Cup reign.

The defending champion Maple Leafs, third in the regular season windup, open their best-of-seven-games semi final playoff series at Montreal tomorrow night as 3-1 third choices. Second-place Chicago, which hosts fourth-place Detroit the same night in the other semifinal opener, is 2-1 to go all the way. The Red Wings are outsiders at 8-1.

Lakers In Do Or Die Tilt Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Lakers, who a year ago battled for the National Basketball Assn. championship, face a struggle tonight to stay in the playoffs.

The St. Louis Hawks go into the third of the playoffs at the Sports Arena needing but one more victory to clinch the western division crown.

The then-resurgent Lakers traveled with high hopes to St. Louis last weekend and Coach Harry Gallatin's Hawks, led by superb Bob Pettit, Richie Guerin, and Cliff Hagan smothered the visitors, 115-104 and 106-90.

A bewildered Laker squad hopes to stay in the best three of five series and Coach Fred Schaus plans to shake up the team for tonight's game.

West scored 53 points in the two games, Baylor 50 and Barnett a discouraging 20.

In the shakeup, Schaus plans to start Barnett instead of rookie Jim King at guard and Leroy Ellis instead of Gene Wiley or Jim Krebs at center.

"We're in a spot where we can't fool around," said Schaus. "We need more scoring so Dick and Leroy are elected."

Baylor, who shot only 33 per cent during the first two playoff games, said his legs ached Sunday night. He's been bothered by leg trouble for much of the season.

The Hawks also had a big edge in rebounds, 135 to 112.

"They just outran us," said Schaus.

Los Angeles has enjoyed no advantage over the Hawks on their home court in the regular season. The score is 3-3.

The Lakers have not won a game in St. Louis in five playoff contests during the past two seasons.

But the Hawks lost all four playoff games last year in Los Angeles.

If the Lakers win tonight, they meet the Hawks in Los Angeles again Saturday night.

Complete Change For Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—In less than seven years the Philadelphia Phil roster has a complete new cast. Not one of the players on the 1957 spring roster are with the club.

However, five of their 1957 pitchers are with other big league teams. They are Robin Roberts, Dick Farrell, Jack Sanford, Harvey Haddix and Curt Simmons.

Crosby Pro-Am To Continue

BEVERLY HILLS (UPI) — The Bing Crosby national pro-amateur tournament at Pebble Beach is certain to continue for at least two years.

Tourney director Larry Crosby said yesterday that agreement had been reached with the Professional Golfers Assn. and that a pact would be written shortly.

The world-famous tournament had been jeopardized by a hassle over television revenue. The PGA had asked for 75 per cent.

But Crosby said that an agreement had been reached after the prize purse had been raised from $60,000 to $80,000. The tournament officials retained control of the television receipts.

Dinner For McCarthy, Bagley Nets $1,900

Last month's testimonial dinner for State Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley netted $1,900, Chairman Gerald E. Misner of the Marin Republican Central Committee reported last night.

On motion of Herbert K. Walton Jr., the central committee members voted to appropriate $500 each to McCarthy and Bagley to help in their campaigns for re-election.

The GOP Central Committee members met at Sabella's Restaurant for dinner, followed by a business meeting.

On April 23, leaders of each Republican volunteer group will meet with the central committee at a no-host dinner. Misner said the place has not been picked yet.

The purpose of the meeting is for central committee members and presidents and vice president of all volunteer groups to "exchange ideas and discuss Republican principles," Misner announced.

He stressed that Republicans, regardless of whom they are now backing, "should unite after the primary and close ranks" for the November battle.

Misner reported he and 40 other central committee chairmen from throughout the state met in Fresno on Feb. 13 and interviewed Lee Kaiser and George Murphy, who are running for U.S. Senate; and presidential hopefuls Barry Goldwater, Harold Stassen, and Nelson Rockefeller.

"I was proud we have such fine candidates," said Misner. "All are honorable men, and any one of them would make better representatives in Washington than those we now have."

Hillside Building Control Policy Urged In San Rafael

Development of a slope policy to control hillside building is in the offing for San Rafael.

The thinking of city staff members, builders, real estate brokers, engineers and architects will be solicited, acting City Planner Daniel P. Coleman told the San Rafael Planning Commission last night.

Much of the commission's work from now on will concern hillside and tidelands development, Coleman said. "The bulk of maps will be dealing with hillside development."

A slope policy is needed allowing for development in an economic and intelligent manner "that won't tear the hills to pieces," he said.

Under a slope policy lot size and frontage requirements are increased as the steepness of the land increases.

Coleman said he will seek the recommendations of city staff members first, then seek recommendations from others.

"Probably later there could be a public hearing and the people could talk," he said. "I'm not suggesting that we jump into this."

Mill Valley Couple Support Greek Girl

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Owen of 99 Rancho Drive, Mill Valley, have pledged to support a 12-year-old Greek girl for a year, through the Foster Parents' Plan, Inc., of New York.

Their contribution will be used to supplement an income of slightly more than $1 a day, which has been used to support the girl's family of five.

McGuire Treasurer For McCarthy Drive

Sen. John F. McCarthy announced the appointment of E. Warren McGuire, former Marin County counsel, as treasurer and finance chairman of his campaign for reelection.

McGuire, a resident of Kentfield, is associated with the law firm of Bagshaw, Martinelli, Weissich, and Jordan.

Marin Youth In Spain To Be Heard On KTIM

A young Marin man studying at the University of Madrid will be heard in a radio interview on KTIM tomorrow at 12:45 p.m.

Jon Whitney, a three-letter man when he was at Redwood High School, will be interviewed by members of a four-man College of Marin team which is on an extended European tour afoot.

Demos Nearly Back Pierre

Marin Young Democrats last night came close to endorsing Pierre Salinger for U.S. Senate, at their meeting in the county courthouse in San Rafael.

Sixteen-year-old president Bob Black, said the motion to endorse the former presidential press secretary was defeated by 9-to-8 vote.

Guest speakers were County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker and Robert Mertle, candidate for Democratic Central Committee.

The young Democrats elected Steven Smith of San Rafael as club vice president to succeed Paul Wilson, who resigned and Richard Zell of Novato to the board of directors.

New School Started For Slum Residents

BERKELEY (UPI) — The University of California has established a preparatory school for high school students who come from slum areas and who would ordinarily lack the opportunity to enter the university.

A scholarship fund of $100,000 was recently approved by the university. Between 50 and 100 students will be selected to take part in the initial classes, scheduled to begin in September.

HUB DECIDES ON A WIDER BOULEVARD

Council Votes To Make Sir Francis Drake 4 Lanes And Provide More Parking Spaces

The San Anselmo City Council last night called for bids on a project to widen Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to four lanes, with parking on both sides, from the Hub to Tunstead Avenue.

Bids will be opened at the April 28 meeting.

Included in the project will be landscaped concrete traffic islands, with left turn lanes at intersections. City Engineer Richard Sypher said traffic signals will be installed on the islands, and conduits will be laid to provide for later improvements in street lighting.

FUNDS SHIFTED

The council approved transfer of $14,900 from the city's general fund improvement account to supplement gas line tax funds for the project.

Expected to begin in June, the project will have a six month completion schedule, Sypher said.

Since the widening is the first phase of a three-part project, which eventually will make the boulevard four lanes to the Ross town limit at Bolinas Avenue, Sypher agreed it will create temporary problems at Tunstead Avenue, due to the wider part of the street feeding into the narrower part.

2 TO 3 YEARS

But City Administrator Douglas Flautt predicted the entire project could be completed within two or three budget years.

Another related problem, off-street parking, was raised by Councilman William Franchini, who asked whether the city "is spending all our money on the street itself.

"Our original idea was to develop parking," he said.

Flautt replied that merchants have indicated they will pay for the parking, but contended the biggest part of the cost will be taken care of when the off-street area is graded in the current project. He predicted the city would have the funds to complete paving areas, even if the merchants' plan were not carried out.

2 Ranch Hands Held To Answer

Two West Marin ranch hands, Donald Frederick Raymer, 23, and Kenneth Eugene Morehouse, 27, were bound over to Marin Superior Court yesterday for trial in the Feb. 22 burglary of the Inverness Grocery.

The two, residents of the Alfred Grossi ranch near Inverness, waived preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court. They are scheduled for hearing in Superior Court at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Taken in the break-in were two air rifles, a .30-caliber rifle, bacon, pork chops and whiskey. The items were recovered.

Escaped Inmate Still At Large

A San Quentin Prison inmate who escaped from a conservation camp at Parlan Fork, Mendocino County, yesterday morning was still at large today, Associate Warden Dale B. Frady reported.

The prisoner, Terry Gordon Russell, 27, serving time for first degree robbery in El Dorado County, drove off from the camp after stealing a red, state-owned jeep.

There has been no trace of Russell or the jeep, Frady said. Russell made an unsuccessful attempt to escape from San Quentin in 1959.

Brumel Battery Complaint Dropped

A battery complaint against Joseph Brumel, 32, of 19 Harbor Drive, Corte Madera, was dismissed in Marin Municipal Court yesterday.

Hawaiian Wedding Singer Retires

HONOLULU (AP) — The man who made the Hawaiian Wedding Song famous has retired from his electrician's job at Pearl Harbor after 36 years.

Sam Kapu, 58, made the first recording of the song for Columbia Records in 1928. Since then, he's worked part time at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Waikiki as well as holding down his full-time job in the shipyard.

He has taken time out for mainland tours, however, and has sung at the St. Regis Hotel in New York, and in hotels at Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Chicago and San Francisco.

Drunken Driving

Walter Melvin Scott, 54, of 458-A Redwood Avenue, Corte Madera, was fined $166 in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for drunken driving. He was arrested March 16 on Highway 101.

Automated Station Gets No Time Off

Each tractor-trailer driver carries a small, perforated card which is used to trigger the pump and to make the charges on the bill.

MOLDED IN a favorite shape, this Strawberry-Nut Mousse party creation can be made the day before and will be ready to be unmolded and garnished with whipped cream and nuts when dessert time arrives.

Strawberry Mousse An Elegant Dessert

Tall, handsome, and delicious describes this elegant but decidedly nutty party strawberry mousse. The fresh flavor of crushed strawberries, the interesting accent of ground dry toasted mixed nuts—a combination of peanuts, cashews, almonds, and filberts with a spice and salt coating — and the smooth richness of whipped cream blend perfectly for a superb dessert.

STRAWBERRY-NUT MOUSSE

- 2 (10 oz.) pkgs. frozen sliced strawberries
- 1 (9¼ oz.) jar dry toasted mixed nuts
- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
- 1 cup cold water
- 2 tablespoons flour
- ½ cup sugar
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- 2 cups heavy cream

Thaw the strawberries. Measure 2 cups strawberries and juice. Grind 1½ cups of dry toasted mixed nuts in an electric blender at low speed or with a nut grinder. Save rest of jar of nuts for garnish. Soften gelatine in cold water. Mix flour, sugar, salt together in small saucepan. Add the softened gelatine and heat, stirring constantly, until gelatine is dissolved. Stir in strawberries. Chill until mixture thickens to consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Beat 1½ cups cream until stiff. Add ground nuts to the chilled gelatine mixture and fold mixture into whipped cream. Spoon into 2 quart mold. Chill until firm. Just before serving, whip remaining ½ cup heavy cream. Unmold strawberry nut dessert. Garnish with whipped cream and remaining whole nuts. Makes 8 servings.

Ham Couldn't Be Better

If there's any dish that's held its own all through the many years of American cooking, it's leg of pork—often called fresh ham — roasted so its skin is brown and crunchy, its meat white and tender.

When potatoes and whole onions are roasted right in the ham fat so they, too, get brown and savory, this main course is one of the most delicious results of our cuisine.

SPECIFIC directions for preparing this old favorite are never — well, hardly ever — found. So we asked a friend of ours who excels in preparing it to give us her directions down to the last detail. Here they are.

If it's available, you can use a shallow roasting pan with a v-shape rack that locks into place. In such a pan the meat is held just right for browning and there's plenty of room for the potatoes and onions. Other sliced vegetables are placed in the pan at the beginning of the roasting and we usually pray that they get charred. It's the charring that helps to give the pork gravy its great flavor.

FRESH HAM WITH PAN-ROASTED POTATOES AND ONIONS

- 1 shank half of pork leg fresh ham) about 8 pounds
- Salt and pepper
- 1 teaspoon crushed dried rosemary
- 1 carrot, sliced
- 1 rib celery, sliced
- 8 medium potatoes
- 8 small onions
- ¼ cup flour
- 2½ cups hot water

WITH AN extremely sharp knife slice through skin and fat of fresh ham at about 1½ inch intervals in two directions to make a diamond pattern. Rub surface with salt and pepper to taste and rosemary. Place carrot, celery and sliced onion in the bottom of a roasting pan. Place rack in pan and ham on rack. Roast in a slow (325 degrees) oven until meat thermometer reads 185 degrees —about 35 minutes per pound.

About 1¼ hours before roast should be done, pare and boil for 10 minutes in separate saucepans the potatoes and 8 whole onions. Drain: arrange the vegetables along the sides of the roasting pan, under the rack, turning them to coat with fat. Continue baking meat and vegetables for 40 to 60 minutes or until they are cooked through — the inside of the meat gray-white and the vegetables browned. Remove meat, potatoes and whole onions to a heat-proof oven platter; keep warm in turned-off oven or in oven set at lowest possible temperature.

To make gravy, remove the charred slices of carrot, celery and onion from roasting pan. Pour off fat and drippings into a measure; now pour off all but ¼ cup of the fat and drippings and turn this measured amount into a saucepan; reserve.

Pour 1 cup of the hot water into the roasting pan; with a wooden spoon, stir (over very low heat if necessary) to get up browned particles, reserve.

HEAT THE fat and drippings left in the saucepan; add flour, stir until blended or until lightly browned. Add the remaining 1½ cups water and the reserved water in roasting pan. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened. Add salt and pepper to taste. Serve piping hot with roast fresh ham. Gravy should have the consistency of a thin white sauce; should it thicken on standing, thin with a little water or stock. (AP)

CANTON FRUIT CUP

- 1 large grapefruit
- 3 large oranges
- 2 tablespoons slivered syrup-preserved ginger

Pare grape fruit and oranges so no white membrane remains; cut sections away from dividing membranes removing any seeds. Halve grapefruit sections. Mix fruit with ginger. Serve in sherbet glasses. Makes 4 servings.

Petite Foods Make Party News

Petite foods for appetizers are ideal not only for service before a large dinner party, but for many small, festive occasions, too. These tasty nibblers save the day when unexpected company stops by.

When you want to have fairly substantial snacking and yet not serve a meal, petite foods like these well-sauced ribs and shrimp fill the bill.

An apple-orange glaze made with orange marmalade and apple cider, spiced with ginger, gives the ribs their exciting flavor and inviting appearance. Choose loin back ribs, for they're finger-food size, just right for living room service.

ORANGE APPLE GLAZED RIBS

- 3 to 4 pounds loin back ribs, cut in pieces
- 1 cup apple cider
- 1 tablespoon brown sugar
- 2 teaspoons corn starch
- ¼ teaspoon ginger
- 1 cup marmalade

Place ribs on a rack in a shallow pan, meaty side up. Roast at 350° for 1½ hours until browned. Drain excess fat from pan. In a saucepan, combine apple cider, brown sugar, corn starch and ginger. Simmer 5 minutes. Blend in marmalade; stir until sauce is clear.

Spoon over the ribs and bake for an additional 10 minutes. Serve immediately.

JELLY AND BARBECUE SAUCE

- 1 cup currant jelly
- 1 cup barbecue sauce
- ¼ cup honey
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce

Barbecue Butter A Festive Accompaniment For Meat

We've said it before and we're saying it again: An interesting partner to an everyday meat or fish can do a lot for a meal.

So, if you enjoy being known as an imaginative and enterprising cook, take stock of new ideas for go-alongs or invent your own. When you try or innovate new recipes, put those that live up to their promise in a permanent file so they'll be right at hand when you want to use them again. They may become specialties of your house.

HERE'S THE latest go-along we've tried. Our tasters voted for it, and we give it a high rating because it's versatile and has professional-type texture and flavor.

Barbecue butter enhances baked ham, boneless pork shoulder butt, smoked tongue and corned beef; it's delicious with roast veal, lamb or beef. Fish—baked, broiled or fried—also benefits from this relish.

BARBECUE BUTTER

- 1 can (1 pound, 14 ounces) fruit
- ½ cup seedless raisins
- ½ cup minced onion
- ¼ cup dark brown sugar
- ¼ cup cider vinegar
- 1 tablespoon chopped candied ginger
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon pickling spice and 1 stick cinnamon tied in a bag

DRAIN FRUIT cocktail and reserve. Mix syrup with remaining ingredients; simmer until thickened, stirring occasionally — 30 to 35 minutes. Sieve reserved fruit cocktail or whir in blender to consistency of applesauce; add to hot syrup mixture; simmer for 15 to 20 minutes. Remove spice bag. Serve warm or chilled with meat or fish. Makes about 3 cups. To store, turn into tightly covered jar and refrigerate. (AP)

In Broiling Liver

When you are planning to broil liver, have it sliced from ¼-to-½-inch thick.

TASTY AND different snack foods include orange apple glazed ribs and a bowl of prawns to be dipped into the currant barbecue sauce.

Secularization Gaining Despite Church Growth

Midway in Holy Week seems like a good time to turn our thoughts to matters religious.

Church membership in the nation has never been higher. We seem to have enjoyed, since World War II, a turn toward religious participation. It may have tapered off a bit from what it was a few years ago, but there still is what might be referred to as a boom in religion.

Yet, only 40 per cent of Californians claim membership in a church.

Sixty per cent, then, are outside any church, although many profess a belief in God and regard themselves as non-practicing Christians. (A devout Christian would insist that there can be no such thing as a non-practicing Christian, but that is a subject we'll not go into here today.)

When you look around at the people who make up our community, it is plain to see we are pretty thoroughly secularized, even including the 40 per cent who claim church membership.

Take Holy Week. Do you see or hear any evidence of it, in daily living?

School is out for "spring" vacation. Some business firms will close for three hours on Friday, "Good" Friday, "to permit employees to attend worship services." (But churches will NOT be filled to overflowing.)

Next Sunday, Easter, will find the largest church attendance of the year. Many will parade their new spring outfits.

That, unfortunately, is about all Holy Week amounts to in our daily life here in Marin County, 1964 years after the events which Holy Week commemorates.

What were those events of 1964 years ago?

The week began with Palm Sunday, commemorating the triumphal entry of Jesus Christ into Jerusalem the Sunday before his torture and death there.

Tomorrow is Holy or Maundy Thursday, commemorating the Last Supper when Jesus demonstrated his humble servitude by washing the feet of the 12 apostles, instituted the sacrament of Holy Communion, and uttered those words which are the key-note of Christian living, " . . . love one another . . ."

Good Friday commemorates the horrible degradation, torture and death of Jesus Christ, atoning for the wrong-doing of all mankind then and until this very day. It is the saddest, most discomforting day of the Christian year.

Holy Saturday, marking Jesus Christ's descent into the depths of death, is observed by having NO special religious service.

Finally, the climax of the week comes Easter Sunday, the day of the resurrection which constituted His triumph over death and the world's wrong-doing.

From colonial times through the Revolution and up until the Civil War, the bulk of the inhabitants of our nation tended to lead God-centered lives—all day every day.

Secularism set in about the time of the Civil War and seems to have been gaining ever since.

While we have made great material progress in the century since the Civil War, we wonder if over-secularization hasn't enveloped us, despite record church enrollments.

CALIFORNIA POLITICS

By DE VAN L. SHUMWAY

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — In case the average person has not noticed, California is seeing a political campaign nearly unique in the state's history.

A campaign aide puts the philosophy of the Rockefeller campaign this way: "We've got someone people like to see. They'll come miles and stand in line for hours to shake the hand of Rockefeller."

AS A RESULT, Rockefeller's receptions are becoming the keystone of his California campaign for the presidential nomination.

The GOP presidential hopeful's campaign people say they plan no state - wide whistle-stop campaign before the June 2 primary election —at least present plans call for no such public exposure. And they aren't trying for parades or airport crowds.

On the other hand Rockefeller's chief rival for California's 86 GOP convention votes, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, has spent the past week on what has been characterized as a "flying whistle stop" through the state.

The first hint of Rockefeller's strategy came on his initial trip to California after his announcement that he'd be a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination.

The site of his initial effort had the colorful name of Peacock Gap Country Club. That is in Marin County.

Plans called for a reception for 1,500 persons, but before it was finished more than 5,000 persons crowded into line long enough to shake Rockefeller's hand and hear him say: "I'm happy to meet you. I'm glad you could be here."

Rockefeller professed amazement at the crowd, which blocked a country road leading to the country club. "It's tremendous," he said of the reception.

PARTLY AS A RESULT of the reception at Peacock Gap and partly because it was the original plan anyway, Rockefeller's camp is going all out for this type of campaigning.

"The name Rockefeller means something in the United States," said the campaign aide. "It's a famous name and to the average guy shaking hands with a Rockefeller is a once-in-a-lifetime event.

"We just hope they'll go home and talk it over with their neighbors — then vote for Rockefeller on June 2," he added.

NEWSMEN FOUND at Peacock Gap that some people stood in line for as long as an hour and a half. And they didn't seem to mind.

On his most recent trip to the state, Rockefeller tried it again. While Goldwater was meeting with fellow Republicans in caucuses at the California Republican Assembly, Rockefeller was in a Fresno hotel shaking hands. He stood in line for three and one-half hours and met an estimated 5,200 persons.

He had occupied three hours in the Los Angeles area standing at the front of a long line at a country club. This time the crowd was estimated at 3,000 and another 3,000 were reported turned away.

Said the Rockefeller aide: "Not very many persons would stand in line to shake hands with, for example, Tom Kuchel (U. S. senator) but with a Rockefeller . . . well, that's shaking hands with a tradition."

Scanning the headlines of the I-J on Mar. 19, Pg. 2, I noticed the article and picture of the two aircraft, the B-47 and TU-16. Is the TU-16 doing a snap roll, slow roll, or just flying upside down? Sure glad I'm not in a bomber flying like that; a fellow could get hurt.

Another Explanation Of High Gas Prices

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your articles on gasoline prices caught my eye, and I thought I would volunteer a bit of information which may help you understand the pricing dilemma faced by this industry. . . .

It may be hard to understand, but it does cost money to pump a gallon of gasoline. Marin County is still in its developing stage. As your population increases, and if your tax rates are reduced, you might just attract the type of marketer required to start price wars. Your government will be required to overlook your existing building regulations to allow this crusader to develop a piece of inexpensive property. Your population will be required to have a good proportion of the lower socio - economic class who will trade with the price cutter. . . .

It costs the average dealer at least seven cents per gallon to operate. When he gets below that figure, as he usually is, he is on the brink of financial disaster. His other services bring in the required income to sustain his operation. . . .

Last year, we initiated a below-cost suit against a host of defendants. Our investigation revealed many interesting points, but foremost was the simple fact that below-cost sales are initiated by business-illiterates, and this is why there are 50 per cent fewer characters about than just three years ago. Marinites should be thankful that they do not have this type of marketer in their midst. But, if the County wishes to develop areas like the East Bay is attempting to redevelop, you'll get your price wars.

Low prices are followed by high prices. . . . I'll match my gasoline receipts with you, and I personally believe that neither of us will feel we have been "overcharged." What I'm worried about is the constant increase on the prices of coffee and cigars.

M. A. C. is a business league of service station dealers and merchants who service the dealers. No companies are members.

CHARLES D. MORLEY

Marketers Advisory Council

(Marin pays above-average prices for gasoline—average for the state. If all those who sell for less are losing money, we are helping to subsidize them. That doesn't make sense. We still say we need a study of the situation by the Consumer Counsel or the Attorney General's office. Industry "experts" contradict each other too often; an ordinary gasoline buyer can't possibly get to the bottom of the situation.—Editor)

How About Adding Horoscope To I-J?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We have now enjoyed your newspaper for about three months. Before getting it, we were thinking of the Examiner, but we thought we would give the I-J a try.

As times goes on, we both enjoy it more and more. My wife enjoys the ads and women's section, and I like especially your headlines with local news, and your Allen-Scott report, and the other editorials. Also now I enjoy the stock market reports.

There are two things I would like to inquire about. How about a Horoscope, and is it possible to read if Pitney-Bowes, Inc., goes up or down in the stock reports?

I am going to keep your newspaper even if you don't add the Horoscope, because I just enjoy reading it.

More Action Needed By Powers That Be

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Thank you for having the courage to speak out about the mess around the Labor Union Hall at Tamalpais and Mission. Perhaps now this disgusting situation will be rectified. The long suffering residents in this neighborhood may even dare to hope that the drunks who make the hall their headquarters will also be cleared away.

Up till now complaints to the authorities at the hall and to the police have been of no avail.

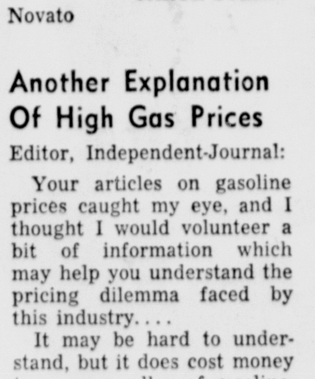
TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

ALTHOUGH CASSIDY'S saloon was jam-packed all day, receipts kept falling and Cassidy finally concluded that his bartender, Mike, was pulling a fast one on him. By boring a peephole in the rear-framework of the bar, Cassidy soon discovered that every time a drink was paid for, Mike would toss the coin in the air and announce, "Heads, it goes to Cassidy. Tails I keep it." Amazinglw practically every toss came up tails.



One silver dollar, however, came up heads. "I'll make this one two out of three," declared the disgruntled bartender. "Then the next toss came up heads too! "I see," nodded the bartender, "This is going to be a case of three out of five."

"Oh, no, you don't," hollered Cassidy, coming out of hiding. "I won that one fair and square!"

AN EXCEEDINGLY homely lady picked up a road map at an information center, and remarked dubiously, "I hope I won't go wrong." "With a map like that," the clerk assured her warmly, "I don't see how you can."

A LITTLE BOY deposited two overdue books on the desk of a public library, and handed his past-due letter, plus the eighteen-cent fine called for, to the clerk. Then he asked, "Please, can I have the letter back? It's the first one I ever got!"

Red China Economically Stronger, Militarily Weaker Than Believed

HONG KONG—Red China is not falling apart—nor is there any evidence that it is going to fall apart.

The signs are that the disordered and disheveled economy of this vast Chinese Communist mainland is, inch by inch, overcoming some of the worst failures of the "great leap forward."

It has survived the catastrophe of Mao Tse-tung's massive mistake of trying to herd his nation's peasants into collectivized communes.

It has survived Peking's unworkable idea of making iron and steel in backyard furnaces manned by part-time farmers.

It has survived Moscow's abrupt withdrawal of Soviet economic aid.

FOR RED CHINA and its Communist regime, 1963 was a year of survival and, in a country where, historically, survival has been synonymous with success, 1963 has been a year of success.

The best judgment of Hong Kong's western analysts, who draw on every source of information across the Communist frontier, is that, agriculturally and industrially, Red China is appreciably better off today than a year ago.

Peking is militarily weaker than most westerners have estimated.

While it is true that the mainland agriculture — because of bad management and bad weather — cannot manage to feed its own people on its own output and must continue to buy food from the west, grain production was up last year over any harvest since 1959 and there are substantial supplies of vegetables, poultry and pork.

Chinese agriculture is still in a precarious plight, but shortages are less acute and workers in Peking, for example, have received a 100 per cent increase in their cloth rations: from 6 feet per year to 13—a small increase in absolute terms but an improvement.

REPORTS reaching Hong Kong show that numerous textile factories which had to close down as a consequence of the inefficiencies of the "great leap" backard are now beginning to operate at something near to 50 per cent of capacity. There is evidence that some capital construction projects, idled by the sudden recall of Soviet technicians, are being resumed.

The pace is slow. The improvement is minute. But the direction is upward. The Chinese Communist economy is not going to bury anyone, but Mao and Chou En-lai and the other leaders in Peking now have reason to believe that the anti-Peking policies of the Soviet Union are not going to bury them.

AND WHAT of Chinese Communist military strength? Here Red China has experienced its severest blow from Moscow.

Peking has an army of 2,600,000 men and is no longer relying on volunteers to keep its forces up to strength. It is an army of conscripts recruited for a term of three years. Approximately 800,000 soldiers are discharged yearly to make way for new draftees.

This is a powerful force. But is has a weakness which has grown continuously more serious since the Soviet Union ended all military assistance. Its weakness is its shortages of modern military equipment and shortages of basic supplies including aviation and other motor fuel.

The view here is that Peking could not have maintained a long war against India, even if it had wanted to do so, and that the thing it most fears is a direct military confrontation with the United States.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

U.S. Probes Illegal Canadian Clay Bets

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The Immigration and Naturalization Service is investigating the clandestine delivery into the U. S. of nearly one million dollars from Canada for illegal betting on the Liston-Clay heavyweight championship fight.

The "smart" money, flown across the border in two suitcases, was bet in New York on underdog Cassius Clay 48 hours before the fight in Miami.

In making this disclosure to immigration authorities here, New York immigration agents revealed that the favoring Sonny Liston, then world heavyweight champion, dropped from seven to one to four and one-half to one after the money from Canada was placed on Clay.

THEY REPORTED that the cash was brought to New York by one of the most notorious underworld figures in Canada. This hoodlum, who carries "broken bottle" scars on his face, entered this country after eluding U. S. lookout agents.

Reliable underworld informants told the immigration agents that the Canadian gambler boarded a U. S.-bound plane while no one was watching, carrying his two suitcases loaded with $100 bills.

The Immigration Service is now trying to determine how the gambler returned to Canada and whether he took his estimated five- to seven-million - dollar winnings with him.

SINCE SOME noted U. S. show personalities and gamblers lost their shirts, the immigration officials believe they can get one of the big losers to shed some more light on this covert gambling operation.

This unannounced inquiry is being closely watched by a House immigration investigating subcommittee headed by Rep. Michael Feighan (D-Ohio).

THE VETERAN legislator is planning to call immigration and Justice Department authorities and grill them about their findings in connection with legislation he is introducing to place boxing under federal jurisdiction.

The proposal, which the late Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) asked Feighan to sponsor, calls for the establishment of a boxing czar under the Justice Department.

It provides that a new director of boxing be given power, including the use of the FBI, to police the multi-million-dollar interstate professional sport.

FEIGHAN IS also looking into the new champ's travel plans to determine if the State Department is encouraging them.

Clay, the most publicized convert to the U. S. Black Muslim movement, has indicated that he may make a trip this summer to heavily-Mohammedan East Africa as well as Cairo. The Central Council of Kenya Moslems has invited him.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

Country Boy From Marin County Finds Malay Press Bit Confusing

SINGAPORE — To a country boy from Marin, the press of the Malay Peninsula makes strange though often piquant reading.

I am not so much referring to today's Seremban-datelined item in the Straits Times, headlined "Six Nights Of Love After Man Applied Oil," though even this has a certain scientific interest.

It appears that a lovely lady of 29 named Senah binte Uda had become a widow under circumstances of interest to the authorities, the body of her husband having been discovered in the jungle with a fractured skull.

IN THE COURSE of inquiry as to who might have found the husband superfluous, it developed that while the husband was on a job of buying weed-killer at a place that sounds like the ring of a bell — Kuala Klawang — one Ma'arof bin Ebat sought Senah's favors.

At first, said the lady, she paid no heed. But "he then rubbed some oil on my body and I could not resist him" over a period of six days and six nights, after which it occurred to her that her husband hadn't come home. Police search and discovery of the body followed.

THE COURT inquiry manifests pretty equal interest in the two problems of who killed husband Lee bin Awang, and where did Ma'arof get that powerful oil?

But of real importance, here as in Marin County, is the matter of politics. I never as yet have fully understood Marin politics. However, I never shall understand the politics of Malaya as reported in the local press in such items as this:

"Mr. S. Rajaratnam as chairman of the PAP political bureau declared that if the MCA is destroyed it will be because through the years it has destroyed itself."

I CAN IMAGINE what would happen to an I-J reporter who subjected any such bilge to the sharp pencil of City Editor Andy. The carnage would be dreadful. Included would be:

"Never call anybody 'Mr.' in print. What is this fellow's first name, or anyhow his middle initial? What is the PAP? What is the MCA? What gave you the idea this was a news item to start with?"

Other places, other ways. And I'll confess that the I-J way suits me. When you read an I-J story about the supervisors, or the schools, or Sen. Jack McCarthy, by golly you know what it's all about — and if it isn't about something it doesn't get in the paper.

Would Doctors Now Prescribe Barry Pamphlets For Aches?

WASHINGTON— We read in the newspaper the other day that the Goldwater organization has just started a fund-raising drive among several special-interest groups. A campaign to solicit support from doctors—under the banner, "Physicians for Goldwater" — has been launched.

The doctors are being asked not only to contribute money to the campaign, but also to place Goldwater literature in their waiting rooms, and even to pass the Goldwater story on verbally to their patients.

WE CAN'T BELIEVE that doctors would go out of their way to influence their patients in this manner, but suppose, for agument's sake, a doctor did. This is what might happen.

"Hello, Doctor."

"Hello, Harry. What seems to be the trouble?"

"My back hurts, Doc. Been hurting for about a week."

"How's that, Doc?"

"It shows you haven't been sitting around waiting for handouts from the government."

"But I hurt my back playing golf."

"That's bad, huh?"

"I WOULDN'T SAY that. Anybody's blood pressure would be high these days, the way we're coddling the Commies and letting Castro get away with murder."

"I also don't sleep so good."

"Who does, with the amount of Federal spending going on today and the deficit the Johnson administration is chalking up? It's a wonder you get any sleep at all!"

I'LL BET YOU DO. Everytime I read about the Bobby Baker scandal and the way the Democrats have shoved all the dirt under the rug, I get a headache, too."

"Let me check your heart a minute. Hmn, hmn. It seems okay, though God knows why when you see what's going on in South Vietnam. My heart skips a beat everytime I read about that fellow McNamara. Do you know that only 20 per cent of our missiles are effective? How does that sound to you?"

" THINK IT'S from shaving."

"What about my back, Doc?"

"Don't worry about your back and consider yourself very lucky. If you were under Medicare, you probably would not even be allowed to come to me. You'd have to go to the doctor that the government dictated you go to. People don't realize how near socialism this country is getting."

"CAN'T YOU GIVE me some novocaine or something for it?"

"Harry, I don't want to alarm you, but your back is just a symptom of a worldwide conspiracy to drive us all into the arms of Krushchev. We got to fight back, Harry, and now."

"Couldn't I fight better if my back didn't hurt?"

"Yup, you probably could and I'm going to fix you up. Here, take one of these every four hours and two before you go to sleep."

"But they're Goldwater pamphlets,"

"That's right, Harry. Read 'em like I told you to and in two days you'll feel like a new man."

Boyd Museum Color TV Show Set Saturday

A color television program, filmed at the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael, will be shown on San Francisco's KGO-TV at 8:30 a.m. Saturday.

The showing will be a rerun, according to David Crommie of 105 Ross Valley Drive, San Rafael, who directs and edits the series, titled "The Wonderful World of Brother Buzz."

Crommie said the program's first showing, about three months ago, had aroused favorable response from children and adults in this area.

He said the half-hour program each week features films about animals, but begins and ends with puppet characters in the studio.

LORD AND LADY

Robert (Lord) Glessner, 10th hereditary Marquis of Rhubarbia, and Lady Sandy Bartlett are decked out for the "Rhubarb Revue" being rehearsed at Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club. The 30-act musical show opens April 10 and runs April 11, 17, 18, 24 and 25. Proceeds will go for a new clubhouse.

Aid Priority System Adopted For Schools

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A priority system was adopted by the State Allocation Board yesterday to stretch available state school building aid money through October.

The Brown administration has moved to put all bond issues, including a 260-million-dollar measure to continue building aid loans to local districts, on the November ballot.

Republicans and some school officials have said the aid program will run out of money unless the building aid bonds are placed on the June ballot.

The priorities, based on a point system with top priority for schools with the most unhoused children, will cut the amount of new loan approvals by about four million dollars a month.

Hale Champion, state finance director, said the priority system will allow approval of eight million dollars in new loan applications a month and actual allocation of about 13 million dollars monthly.

Approvals of new applications have been running at about 12 million dollars, and actual apportionments 13 million dollars.

Champion, in a press statement, said the priority system assures that no school district in the state will have double sessions because of the delay of the bond election from June to November.

He said also that the allocation board action "removes all doubt that urgent school building programs can be met this year and next."

French Action On Red China Due Discussion

French recognition of Red China and its implications for the United States is the theme of the first in the series of College of Marin round table forums to be held at 8 p.m. Monday in Room 1 of Harlan Hall.

The one-hour forum is open to the public and will be broadcast live over radio station KTIM-FM. Because of the broadcast, the doors will be closed at 7:55 p.m.

Forum moderator will be Dr. Louis Wasserman, philosophy and government professor at San Francisco State College. Panelists include Samuel W. Gardiner, San Rafael attorney; Samuel Schwartz, political science instructor at College of Marin; Dr. Surjit Singh, professor of philosophy at San Francisco Theological Seminary, and an additional panelist to be named.

News Secretary Named By Engle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.), announced yesterday the appointment of Paul S. Green as his news secretary.

A native of New York, Green has been editorial director of the Senate anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee since 1955. He succeeds Fred Assetlin, who resigned two weeks ago.

$5.1 Million Research Jobs Let In Bay Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two research contracts totaling 5.1 million dollars were awarded yesterday to San Francisco Bay Area institutions, the office of U. S. Sen. Clair Engle reported.

The Navy awarded 2.6 million dollars to University of California, Berkeley for continuation of oceanographic research.

The Army awarded a 2.5-million-dollar contract to Stanford Research Institute for research studies on chemical and biological warfare. The work will be done at Menlo Park.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, March 25, the 85th day of 1964 with 281 to follow.

The moon is approaching its full phase. The evening stars are Venus and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1776, the Continental Congress awarded the first medal ever given in the U. S. to George Washington in recognition of his role in bringing about the evacuation of Boston by British forces on March 17.

In 1900, the Socialist Party of the U. S. was organized in Indianapolis.

In 1911, 147 lives were lost when fire swept the Triangle Shirt Waist Co. in New York City.

A thought for the day: American author Thomas Paine once said: "When we are planning for posterity, we ought to remember that virtue is not hereditary."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Learn To Base Your Play Only On Human Opponents

Opening lead — ◇ 10

West opened the ten of diamonds, and dummy's king went to the ace. East continued with the jack of diamonds and then switched to the deuce of hearts.

HEART ACE

South took the ace of hearts and sat in solemn thought for a moment in the hope of working out the best play in trumps.

Since South was a very logical man he made a very logical play: he led a low trump to dummy's ace and then returned a low trump.

It was a bad day for logic. West was sure to win two trump tricks, and the contract was on the rocks.

NO REACTION

There was a clue to the winning line of play, but South had failed to notice it. It was pretty clear that East had started with a long diamond suit headed by ace-queen-jack and with three or four hearts headed by the jack or king.

Yet East had not reacted after the opening bid of one notrump.

If East also held the king of spades, he might well have considered a bid or a double. Actually, East had passed away with nary a flicker.

3 TO 1 ODDS

The textbooks may not tell you anything about this kind of situation, but a practical player should be willing to bet about 3 to 1 that West has the king of spades. Therefore a practical player should begin the trumps by leading the queen of spades for a finesse through West.

If West plays low, declarer lets the queen ride. If West covers with the king, dummy wins with the ace, and declarer has no further problem.

If you play against machines, this article will teach you nothing. If you play against human beings, however, be guided by their reactions.

QUESTION

Partner opens with 1 NT (16 to 18 points), and the next player doubles.

You hold:

♠ K J 6
♥ K 10 8 5 4

Answer: Redouble.

Since you have 7 points in high cards, the partnership total is 23 to 25 points; the opponents have only 15 to 17 points. You may be able to punish the opponents severely at any contract.

Redwood League Fights To Save Trees From Freeways

By DEREK SCHOEN

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Redwoods or roadways?

That's the question posed by California conservationists battling proposed state freeways they claim would irreparably damage countless trees in the heart of the state's famed redwoods country, north to the Oregon border.

The freeway proposal is the latest in a series of crises that have occupied the San Francisco-based Save-the-Redwoods League since it formation in 1918.

Only 250,000 acres of virgin redwood forests remain. And of this total, only 50,000 acres are in state or national parks.

They live as long as 4,000 years, attain diameters of more than 20 feet and soar 350 feet high.

Heretofore, private logging operations have accounted for the demise of most of the redwoods. The wood of the coast redwood is highly prized for its durability and attractive, texture.

But another characteristic of redwoods — self-creation of their own so-called "life zones" —opens them to damage from freeways.

Such conditions spell quick annihilation for redwoods, according to State Park Commissioner Margaret Owings, a supporter of the Save-the-Redwoods League's battle.

The league hopes to get nationwide support in its drive to force the state to re-route the proposed freeways and thus save the redwoods.

Throughout the growing controversy, the state's position has been that it must select the most feasible — less costly — routes for freeways. As guardnia of taxpayer's dollars, officials say, they have no alternative but to get the job done at the lowest possible cost.

The league asserts that freeways, while necessary, need not be built at the expense of the redwoods.

Sports Night

The Junior High Youth Club, sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation and Park Department, will hold a sports night with volleyball, table tennis, pool and shuffle board from 7:30 to 10 p.m. tomorrow at the San Rafael Community Recreation Center.

Doctor Sentenced For Dope Death

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (UPI)—A society doctor was convicted of homicide and sentenced to seven years in prison yesterday in the mysterious death of a wealthy American widow.

A Lausanne District Court handed down its verdict in the case of Dr. Gerard Savoy in the narcotics death nearly three years ago of Mrs. Marjorie (Winnie) Kendall Bird of Pevely, Mo., and Oyster Bay, N.Y., and the disappearance of more than half a million dollars of her jewelry and other property.

The court found Dr. Savoy, who had treated the socialite Mrs. Bird with vast amounts of narcotics, guilty of homicide and imposed the jail term.

Airman Fined For Hit-Run Driving

Keith Norval Caslake, 19-year-old Travis Air Force Base airman, was fined $110 and sentenced to five days in Marin County Jail Monday for hit-run driving and possession of alcoholic beverage.

He was arrested by Fairfax police Saturday night after his car hit two fences along Maple Street. Imposition of fine was delayed until April 17 by Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court.

2 Youths Booked On Theft Charge

Two San Rafael youths, both 17, were booked into juvenile hall Monday night, charged with the theft of power tools valued at $350 from a truck belonging to Rufus T. Price of 25 Alameda de la Loma, Novato.

The theft was reported by Irving B. Litchfield, owner of a San Rafael motel, who said he and a clerk, John T. Whitworth, had seen the two youths remove the tools from the truck when it was parked near the motel.

Police said the suspects also were charged with possession of alcoholic beverages by minors and a curfew violation.

Baseball Diamond Protest On Agenda

A public hearing will be held by the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission at 8 p.m. April 8 in the kindergarten room of Sun Valley School to hear protests from neighbors over the baseball diamond next to the school.

Neighbors have complained over the danger of balls flying over the fence.

Regular meeting of the commission, slated for tonight, has been postponed until 5 p.m. next Wednesday in city hall.

On Dean's List

Linda LaMotte Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaMotte E. Foster of 27 Redwood Avenue, Larkspur, has been named to the dean's list at the University of the Americas, Mexico City, where she is a senior majoring in history.

GARDEN CLUB members, Mrs. John Leaf, left, and Mrs. Lawrason Driscoll, president, in background, relax for a moment with Mrs. Thomas Cassidy, general chairman of the Novato Garden Club spring bazaar. Garden club members have put in many hours of work readying plants for the bazaar which will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., April 4 and 5 at the Novato Fair Shopping Center, Novato.

Nine Novato Groups To Stage Annual Garden Club Bazaar

Nine organizations in Novato will have booths in the annual spring bazaar sponsored by the Novato Garden Club.

The bazaar, to be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. April 3 and 4 in the Novato Fair shopping center, will feature handmade items, pastries and a wide variety of plants.

Mrs. T. H. Cassidy, chairman of the bazaar, stated that plants will include everything from groundcovers to trees. An unusual collection of ferns, palms and roses has been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Sadowsky.

Mrs. Ben Collier, Mrs. W. R. Kuser, Mrs. A. P. Garatti and Mrs. Cassidy will pick up any donations of plants. A prize will be awarded to the donor giving the most plants.

MRS. CASSIDY said that there has been nearly 100 per cent participation by Garden Club women in this spring bazaar. However, those who have put in the most hours are Mesdames H. E. Beadle, Collier, Lawrason Driscoll, Garatti, Anthony W. Jurkus, E. N. Kingsland, Kuser, John Leaf, Andrew McLaughlin, William R. Rupert, Walter Simonds, Jr., John Sloat, Wayne Tharp, George Whitten, Lee Wise, William R. Wilson and Rody Parent.

A new feature for the Garden Club will be an information booth open from 1 to 4 p.m. Friday. Mrs. Ruth Moscrop, assisted by Mrs. Roy Huffman, will furnish information on organic gardening.

PROCEEDS FROM the plant sale will be used for the Novato City beautification program which the Garden Club started two years ago.

The Jaycettes booth will again feature "strictly for children" items. Mrs. John D. Groff and Mrs. Donald Rose are co-chairmen, assisted by Mesdames Duane Stewart, Gene Strockbine, Ralph Chatoian, Gordon Briggs and James Pelmuder.

Mrs. H. L. Hetrick is chairman of the Rainbow Mother's Club booth, with members making and selling homemade candy. On the committee are Mesdames C. W. Ridgeway, K. E. Jones and J. B. Gilliland.

FOR THOSE WHO want refreshment while shopping at the bazaar, the St. Francis Episcopal Churchwomen will have a booth featuring pizza and coffee. Mrs. Donald Crose is chairman.

The Explorer Post No. 56 will feature driftwood and handmade redwood planter boxes. Advisors are Col. Robert C. Beebe, (ret.) and Douglas Johnstone.

An assortment of homemade cookies will be on sale in the Sylvan Circle of Druids, No. 115 of Novato, Booth. Mrs. Frank Murphy is assisted by Mesdames George Whitten, Sebastian Tallitsch and Robert Listman.

APRONS, TOWELS, potholders and other handmade items will be in the booth sponsored by the Novato Chapter No. 609 of the Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Marie Tubb and Mrs. Louis Giovine are chairmen.

Donald V. Westlund Auxiliary Post No. 7816, Veterans of Foreign Wars will also feature handmade items. Mrs. Charles Thompson is chairman of the booth.

CACTI IN various shapes and sizes will be among the plants at the annual spring garden club bazaar. Mrs. Rody Parent, left, and Mrs. Anthony Jurkus get the succulents ready for the sale. Many of the cacti will be planted in attractive driftwood. Everything from ground cover plants to bushes will be on sale at the annual bazaar. W. R. Kuser made the attractive poster being shown by Mrs. Cassidy.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Family Reunions Being Held At Easter Dinners, Parties

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Easter dinners and parties are always happy affairs and occasions for many family reunions both in homes and restaurants. Sabella's will be the setting for a number of parties when the Easter Egg hunt and brunch take place there Sunday.

Sanford L. Harris of Corte Madera will make this a family party as he has done for the past several years. He will be accompanied by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford L. Harris Jr., and their two children, Matthew and Elizabeth, and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs. Richard Dowling and their three children, Lauren Ann, Mark and Glen. Also in the party will be Mr. Harris' nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris, and their daughter, Holly, as well as Mr. Dowling's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dowling and their two children, Douglas and Erin. With them will be Mr. and Mrs. Rodney C. Burgett with their daughter, Janis, and son, Galen. Also enjoying the festivities will be Mr. and Mrs. Albert Massara and their son, James.

Mrs. Oddny Olney of San Rafael will give a dinner Easter at Sabella's as she has for the past seven years. Also celebrated will be the birthdays, of her granddaughters, Barbara Ann and Lora Ann, who will attend with their parents, the Robert Olneys of Santa Venetia and the Olneys' son, Steven.

Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bertran, parents of Mrs. Robert Olney, her brother, Vince Bertran, his wife and their three children. Mrs. Olney has also invited Mrs. Robert Olney's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson, who will come up from the Peninsula with their son. John.

SEVERAL DIGNITARIES attended the luncheon and fashion show given by the San Rafael Military Academy Mothers' Club at the Meadow Club Friday. Among these were Dr. Orville E. Ault, Canadian consul general and Mrs. Mac Chapman, wife of the New Zealand consul general. Among those attending were many mothers whose sons had been graduated from SRMA including three past presidents of the Club, Mrs. Henry Picard, Mrs. Prentiss Goldstone, and Mrs. Glenn Anderson, also Mesdames Paul Ciampi, Charles Haluska, Evellyn McIlwaine, and John Lesoine, who was one of the modeis.

Mrs. Fred Dietrich, decorations chairman, had as her guests, Mesdames David Gaines, S.C. Martin and F. L. Peterson. Mrs. William Weissich, president of the club, had as her guests, Mesdames Alvin H. Goldstein, Bruce Bales and Hadden Roth. Guests of Mrs. Robert Reynolds, chairman of the luncheon and show were Mesdames Leonard Marconi, Jack Podesta, John Reynolds, Steve Morena, Lee Cicotti, Doug McBride and Miss Gayle Reynolds, a model. Mrs. Betty Hutton attended with Mesdames Elliott Blue and William Burgren. Guests of Mrs. Mel Baruh were Mesdames Robert Cole and Charles Murray. Mrs. Howard Good had her daughter, Mrs. Norman Ciampi, as her guest.

NEW RESIDENTS at the Cote d'Azur apartments in Sausalito are Mr. and Mrs. James A. Waterfield, who came here from Michigan. Also residing at the same Sausalito waterfront apartments is Mrs. Viola Littell, formerly of San Francisco, president of the J. Marie Martin Company.

Moving to the Cote d'Azur apartments from Atherton are Mr. and Mrs. Ralston Allan. Also now at the Cote d'Azur apartments is Mrs. Maria-Francis, formerly of Kansas City, Mo.

MRS. MARVIN H. GOOD receives a silver serving tray from Maj. Gen. C. F. Necrason after being selected 28th Air Division Family Services Volunteer. (U. S. Air Force photo)

Mrs. Marvin Good Is Honored

Mrs. Marvin H. Good has been named 28th Air Division Family Services Volunteer of the year, it was announced by Maj. Gen. C. F. Necrason, division commander at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Mrs. Good, wife of Col. Marvin H. Good, 84th Fighter Interceptor Squadron commander, has contributed to the family services at Hamilton and Marin County.

She was president of the Marin Aid to Retarded Children committee in 1961. And established the Work Training Center of adults a year later, designed to train retarded people in skills commensurate with their capability.

Her nomination for the Lane Bryant award of the National Assn. for Retarded Children was a result of the establishment of the center. She was one of four finalists.

Mrs. Good served as Family Services coordinator at the base in 1962 and she headed the Children Have a Potential program in 1963. A brochure giving complete information on facilities available for retarded children in this area was a direct result of her efforts with CHAP.

Mrs. Good assisted a military family in securing funds to provide psychiatric treatment for their child, and she personally solicited donations from local clubs and businessmen and an Air Force Aid Society grant, which actually made the treatment possible.

Scrambled Egghead Is Needless Worry

NEW YORK (UPI)—Embryonic eggheads come in three classes: poached, sunnyside-up and scrambled.

The poached ones have a vague notion of career ambitions as they enter college. The sunnysiders, meanwhile, have their academic wagons hitched to a specific star—a career goal in teaching, medicine, law or sociology.

The scrambled ones — and you might have one in your family—have school money or scholarship in hand, but as they matriculate they haven't the slightest notion about what they eventually will be.

The advice, from six queried in interviews, amounts to this: The college training, especially in the first couple of years, will help to chart the career course in an intelligent manner for those undecided as freshmen.

Scholarship recipients queried are awardees of school funds sponsored by State Farm Insurance. In response to questions from the sponsoring agency the teen-agers came up with the following advice to other teen-agers who might like to follow in their footsteps:

—Reading is the best preparation for scholarship exams and college. Martha Grant, of Pensacola, Fla., put it this way: "Cramming the night before a test is useless. It's the best idea to do a lot of outside reading always."

—Many outside activities and interests rank almost at the level of schoolwork. Carol Ann Toups, a freshman at Rice University, from Jennings, La., said every new experience "broadens knowledge that will help increase your score."

—An awareness of the world around you and all its facets was stressed by Marilyn Kibbie from Marshall, Mich. "Every new useful experience helps broaden your score," she said.

Suggestions from other winners ranged from recommendations that a student diversify courses to advice about participating in extra-curricular activities.

'Musicals In Miniature' To Be Presentation Of Jane Nickols

Jane Nickols will present "Musicals in Miniature" for Mill Valley's Outdoor Art Club at its guest day tea tomorrow at 2 p.m.

Combining drama and song, she will present portions of seven current Broadway musicals in costume with props.

Of her Sunday salon-concert last spring in San Francisco, critics wrote "The best one-woman show since the advent of Ruth Draper and Cornelia Otis Skinner, with a musical dimension not usually found in presentations of this nature. Miss Nickols is as accomplished an actress as she is a singer.

In 1962 she played a principal role in "Bells Are Ringing" which starred Celeste Holme at the Sheraton Palace dinner theater. She has performed with the San Francisco and Los Angeles Civic Light Opera Companies, with the national company of "South Pacific" and with the On-Broadway and Little Fox cabaret theaters.

JANE NICKOLS

Tea chairman Miss Gladys M. Zander will be assisted by Mesdames Howard B. Bleyle, J. C. Craik, Thorpe J. De Lasaux, Edward W. Johnson, Edward A. Kemp, Harold J. Muller and Charlotte Roese.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mesdames John Giuliani and Ashby A. Streeter. Pouring will be Mesdames Earnest A. Brymer, Marcel R. Ehrer, J. M. Hahn and George W. Kahler.

At the last meeting Mrs. Bertha Hatch and Miss Charlotte Roese were welcomed as members. Mrs. Cecil Brown was elected chairman of the nominating committee for next year's officers.

Hobby Spins Into Rewarding Career

HOUSTON (UPI) — The popularity of Early American furniture and unusual fabrics have combined to give Mrs. W. P. Svec a hobby with strong ties to the pioneer days. She operates a spinning wheel.

For two years she has been turning out fibers on the sturdy, shiny wheel. The process is a tedious one but it has pleasing rewards, particularly when fashion makes some exotic fabrics popular.

FOR EXAMPLE, Mrs. Svec says the wheel does a good job at producing half-spun mohair, a fiber in demand currently for stoles and other garments.

The versatile wheel can make smooth thin yarn as fine as a sewing thread, or thick, nubby fiber that looks like a small rope and is good for rugs.

Mrs. Svec found the spinning wheel in an antique shop and estimates it is around 100 years old. She and her husband restored, carefully making the wheel and spindle smoothly workable.

Soon she had taught herself to work the raw cotton or wool into the finished fiber, drawing on memories of her childhood days in Cleburne, Tex., when a neighbor operated a spinning wheel.

HER FAME has spread, so to speak, and an elementary school class once used her home as a "field trip" site.

Mrs. Svec sighed, "No, thank goodness, I don't."

Dairy Herds May Get Clean Bill Of Health

Marin County dairy farmers, who took part in a 1957 pilot program to eradicate brucellosis from California cattle, are suffering few losses today from the state's continuing milk sampling and testing procedures.

In fact, prospects look good that the county will receive a clean bill of health from the United States Department of Agriculture within the next four months, according to County Farm Advisor Winston L. Engvall.

Engvall was queried following reports that Sonoma County dairy herds have lost relatively large numbers of cows when they were condemned under the program.

"As far as I know," Engvall said, "no herds have had these extreme losses in this county."

While tests continue, and a few cows are destroyed every year, he contended that the number was small, most coming from the "suspicious" area, in which only a possibility of the disease is detected but the animal is slaughtered for safety's sake.

Marin was given the department of agriculture's second best rating in July, 1959, when it was designated a "modified certified free" area.

At that time, the county was assured the word "modified" would be dropped if the rate of brucellosis was kept below a specified level, thus giving Marin the highest possible rating.

Engvall said the level — no more than 1 per cent of all animals in no more than 5 per cent of all herds — had been maintained, which should mean the new rating will come this July.

Officials in the program stress that, even though "suspicious" cows are located from time to time, there is no danger to milk consumers, since the required process of pasteurizing would eliminate the danger before the milk is sold.

Chairman For Cranston State Campaign Named

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former Navy Secretary Dan A. Kimball will be statewide chairman of the Committee to Elect Alan Cranston to the U.S. Senate, Cranston's campaign headquarters announced yesterday.

Cranston, the state controller, is seeking the Democratic Senate nomination, opposing incumbent Sen. Clair Engle and former presidential press secretary Pierre Salinger, among others.

Kimball, chairman of the board of Aerojet General Corp., said: "I am proud to join Gov. Pat Brown and other leading Democrats in support of Alan Cranston."

Sea Lion Moves In With Family—Thinks He's Human

NEWPORT BEACH (AP)—Mr. Flip is a sea lion but doesn't want to be. He prefers living with people.

Francis (Shorty) Turner took Mr. Flip home and gave him loving care and food, chopped in small pieces. Mr. Flip had trouble swallowing.

After two days, Turner took Mr. Flip to the ocean but Mr. Flip swam back. Then Turner threw the reluctant sea lion in the water again.

Mr. Flip started playing in the kelp a half mile offshore so Turner, his wife and daughter went off shopping. But they forgot to shut the door of their beach house.

When they returned, the house was full of steam. The hot water faucet in the bathtub was running full splash.

On the kitchen sinkboard was a seared Mr. Flip with his head under the cold water faucet—also running full.

Mr. Flip apparently can't read. That explains why he turned on the hot water faucet in the bathroom.

That did it. Mr. Flip is a permanent house guest today at the Turner home. He loves to sleep on a bed, but Mrs. Turner draws the "lion" there.

Turner now has a new daily chore. He carries Mr. Flip the 100 yards or so to the ocean for a daily swim.

$135 Theft At Doctor's Office

Burglary of checks and equipment valued at $135 from the office of Dr. Lee M. Cecil, 714 C Street, San Rafael, was discovered by San Rafael police at 2:25 a.m. yesterday.

Officers patrolling the area saw a window has been pried open, and found the screen had been pushed out.

Marin Agricultural Head Gets New Contract, Raise

Marin County supervisors yesterday awarded County Agricultural Commissioner Richard T. Straw a new four-year contract and a pay raise effective April 1.

Straw, who has been receiving $745 a month, will be raised to $870 a month in April and then receive step increases each year until 1967 when his salary will be $1,058 a month.

Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott reported to supervisors that Straw's current salary was below that paid agricultural commissioners in comparable counties.

Straw had not received a raise since entering his first contract four years ago.

Former Music Firm Exec Is Found Dead

OAKLAND (AP) — Clay Sherman, former board chairman of the Sherman Clay and Co. music firm, was found shot to death yesterday in an Oakland cemetery, an apparent suicide, police said.

A caretaker at Mountain View Cemetery told police he saw the Sherman car drive to a grassy knoll and a short time later heard a shot. He ran to the spot and found the body and a .22-calibre revolver nearby.

Official Believes Napa Child Was Murdered

NAPA (AP)—The belief that 5-year-old Doreen Heskett, long-missing Napa child whose remains were found in a hayfield four months ago, had been murdered, was expressed yesterday by Dist. Atty. James D. Boitano.

Boitano commented after receiving a laboratory report from Dr. Houghton Gifford, Napa pathologist who has been working with University of California criminologist Dr. Paul Kirk on the case.

This was the first official report since she was found.

Boitano said he would "reserve final judgment until all the reports are in but, at this point, it looks like she was murdered."

The body was found in a pasture south of Napa Nov. 21. Doreen had been missing since March 25, 1963, when she disappeared from near her home. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Heskett of Napa. (The family formerly lived in Novato.)

Boitano declined to elaborate on the Gifford report, saying things learned by the pathologist are being used in the continuing investigation.

Yorty Enters Demo Delegation

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty yesterday entered a Democratic presidential delegation in California's June 2 primary election.

The delegation, rival to one filed earlier and headed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, was technically uncommitted but will be pledged to President Lyndon B. Johnson at the August Democratic National Convention.

Yorty said he felt Democrats should have a choice between delegations and said his group "consists of many prominent Democrats" and rank and file workers of the party.

"It should be pointed out that neither delegation can be considered official unless the president so states in writing," Yorty said.

Yorty now must circulate petitions to gain the names of at least 15,186 registered voters before April 3.

Hospital Needs To Be Discussed

The ability of present facilities in Marin County to meet hospital needs will be discussed on radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Speakers will be Ernest N. Kettenhofen, president of Marin Hospital District Board, Dan E. Anderson, president of the San Rafael General Hospital Foundation board; Dr. Ira H. Degenhardt, chairman of Ross General Hospital board, and Dr. Ralph J. Weseman, chairman of Novato General Hospital board.

Questions telephoned by listeners will be directed to the speakers and the program will be rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, said Kitty Oppenheimer, program conductor.

Rebuilt Tower Short-Circuits Dealer's Dream

Thorley, who had his name inscribed in Old English letters on the side of one of New York's famous landmarks, the Times Tower, was a Fifth Avenue florist and real estate operator who in 1902 sold the site at the corner of Broadway and 42nd St. to Adolph Och, then New York Times owner and publisher, who built Times Tower.

He stipulated in the deed that his name be chiseled in stone, near the east corner high above the sidewalk.

Allied Chemical Corp., which recently bought the tower and is rebuilding it, tried to retain the two-ton stone bearing the inscription but failed because of engineering problems. Nevertheless, the company felt the Thorley stone was so much a part of Times Square they engaged two artists, Ann Parker and Avon Neal, to reproduce the old English script on a Japanese rice paper rubbing, one of the oldest forms of art.

How Radio Helps Studying Explained

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — At last it has been explained — there is a real scientific reason why your youngster likes to study while his transistor radio is going full-blast.

According to Prof. G. R. Bozzoli, Johannesburg noise expert and dean of the local university's faculty and engineering, the reason is simple. "A radio drowns casual noises between periods of silence. It is these casual noises from outside, such as a passing car, which really interrupt their studies."

THOMAS S. FLETCHER
Master councilor

DeMolay Unit Will Install In Mill Valley

Thomas S. Fletcher will be installed as master councilor of the Mill Valley chapter, Order of De Molay, at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Mill Valley Masonic Temple.

Fletcher, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Fletcher of 76 South Knoll Road, Mill Valley, is a junior at Tamalpais High School. He succeeds John A. Hinman II of Terra Linda.

Other officers to be installed at the event, sponsored by Mill Valley Lodge 356, Free and Accepted Masons, are:

Preceptors are David Haskell, Wallace Clark, David Nyland, John Peetz, David Simmonds, Steven Lund and Mark Lund. Hostesses will be Job's Daughters of Mill Valley Bethel 119.

The De Molay chapter sweetheart is Susan Irwin of Larkspur Bethel 246, Job's Daughters.

School Grounds Head Is Named

Norman W. Bristowe, formerly of Coalinga, has been named superintendent of grounds for Novato Unified School District, Supt. James G. Bunker announced today.

Bristowe, who held a similar position under Bunker in the Coalinga schools, will receive a salary of $745 per month. He replaces the late Clarence Vogensen, who died last fall.

A native of Canada, Bristowe came to this country 20 years ago. He has worked for the Coalinga schools for more than 15 years. He and his wife, Helen, have two daughters, Nancy, 15, a student at Novato High School, and Patricia, 18, who attends University of the Pacific at Stockton. They have moved to 28 Brown Drive, Novato.

Jack Webb's Wife Wins Divorce

Although the shapely actress used the same story that Webb's first two wives did, she got less alimony. In 1953, actress Julie London got $500,000 from television's famed Sgt. Joe Friday and in 1957, actress Dorothy Towne got $135,000.

All the wives made the same complaint — that Webb was married to his work as a television actor, producer and director.

This handsome juggernaut is so immaculate that you would want to call it the "lush look." And it has everything. The accessory list reads like an auto supply store inventory. In addition to the powerful engine it has all the power equipment that was ever invented. And you'll like the pleasing upholstery that is done in matching beige. Easy to keep clean, too! And don't forget that the only owner drove only 26,368 easy miles.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
(Advertisement)

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Governing Board of the Marin Junior College District will receive bids for furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for excavating approximately 20,000 cubic yards (truck measure) of earth and rock material from a piece of property (referred to as the Gilroy Property) located at the base of Red Hill, bounded by Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Spaulding Avenue and Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo, California, and loading and hauling to and placing and compacting of this material on College of Marin property, southeast of College Avenue, Kentfield, California.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with FALK & BOOTH, 16 Beale Street, San Francisco, California, where same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of $25.00 per set, which deposit will be refunded upon return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be obtained at the office of FALK & BOOTH, 16 Beale Street, San Francisco, California, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or a bid bond for ten percent of the amount bid, made payable to the School District, and shall be sealed and filed with the Clerk of the Board on or before the 9th day of April 1964 at 8:00 P.M. and will be opened in public at or about 8:00 P.M. of that day in Room 61, Art Building, College of Marin, Kentfield, Marin County, California.

4. The above mentioned check or bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract after being requested to do so by the Governing Board of the Marin Junior College District.

5. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price and a faithful performance bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured from a surety company satisfactory to the Governing Board of the Marin Junior College District.

6. Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California or local law thereto applicable, the Governing Board of the Marin Junior College District has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which the work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract which will be awarded the successful bidder.

7. Coalition Government Heads For Divorce In W. Germany

By JOHN DORNBERG
Worldwide Press Service

BONN—West Germany's coalition government, the result of a shotgun wedding following the last general election in 1961, is now heading toward divorce.

The two partners, the Christian Democratic Union and the Free Democratic Party, were ill-matched from the start. Now they are engaged in bitter domestic squabbles, much to the delight of the Social Democrats.

The trend toward a break-up is so visible that former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, still chairman of the Christian Democrats, went out of his way to deny that early elections will be called to re-define political boundaries.

But no one in the CDU denies that the thought of early elections is an enticing one. They shy away from it because, in Adenauer's words, "We don't want West Germany to fall into a pattern of political instability such as has plagued other European nations."

The latest issue over which a coalition crisis erupted was insignificant and peripheral to basic policies. Up for a vote in the Bundestag (lower house) was a bill that would increase subsidies to low-income families with many children. Over a technicality on the method of payment, the Free Democrats bolted ranks and voted with the opposition Social Democrats, nearly scuttling the entire measure.

A similar flirtation is expected soon on a bill to regulate payment of unemployment benefits to sick workers.

It depicted Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, as the husband, reading a note from his "wife," Vice Chancellor Erich Mende, leader of the Free Democrats, in the "family bedroom." A portrait of Mende as a voluptuous "little woman" adorns the wall. The note reads: "I'll be back soon. Have just gone to visit Willy." (Willy Brandt, the Berlin mayor who heads the Social Democrats.) The headline said: "Marriage, Free Democratic Style."

The two partners in the FDP-CDU marriage are basically incompatible. In addition to having different outlooks on life, there are serious divisions within their own ranks.

The coalition came into being after the 1961 election in which the Christian Democratic Union, together with its Bavarian sister wing, the Christian Social Union (CSU), won only 242 seats in the Bundestag: Eight short of a majority. The Free Democrats have 67 seats, and the Social Democrats control 190.

Thus the Free Democrats can control the balance of power. Ideologically incapable of throwing in their lot with the Socialists, and determined to have a voice in the government, they teamed up with the Christian Democrats.

The CDU generously repaid the third-force party with five out of eighteen cabinet posts, including the key finance and justice ministries. But the Free Democrats have been more demanding than grateful. They agreed to the coalition if Adenauer would resign as chancellor.

Since then, the Free Democrats have flirted with the Socialists several times. They demanded and got the resignation of Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss as the price for continued cooperation in 1962.

The Free Democrats are the heirs to Germany's 19th Century liberal democratic movement. This factor forms one aspect of the FDP's political outlook. Because that early 19th Century movement was oriented on German nationalism at a time when there was no real Germany, nationalism is another component of the FDP ideology.

The party's nationalism manifests itself in a willingness to spare no effort and make virtually unlimited concessions to Russia for the sake of German reunification.

These currents within the party bring it closer these days to the Social Democrats, who are seeking some modus vivendi with Russia and East Germany.

On domestic matters, the Free Democrats often find themselves at odds with both the Christian Democrats and the Socialists.

Though it is a liberal party, it is liberal in the German bourgeoisie tradition. Its fiscal viewpoints are often Victorian. It votes reluctantly for social welfare projects.

About half of its deputies are left of the Christian Democrats; the other half are far right in their attitudes. Many believe that the party is held together only by the thirst for power, and that this can be quenched only by playing the role of balancing between the Christian Democrats and the Socialists.

But conscious of its important role, the Free Democrats are sure to wield what power they have in the months to come by acting as independently as they can get away with.

Diamond Caused Pain Two Ways

LOUISVILLE (UPI) — After a long search, Mrs. James Eaton decided the diamond in her engagement ring had been lost while she was doing the wash.

The next day her husband came home and complained about something hurting his foot. Imbedded in his sock was his wife's diamond.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Relatively New Disease Seems To Choose Children For Victims

VAN DELLEN

Cystic fibrosis (mucoviscidosis) is a relatively new disease but it is surprising how much we know about it. Most victims are children who inherit a chemical defect which causes abnormal secretions of sweat and mucus. Perspiration is excessively salty and mucus from the affected organs is so thick and sticky, it obstructs the openings of various passageways.

The parents may have no manifestations of the disease but they carry the genes that are responsible. In the past, most little ones died within seven years after the disease was diagnosed The outlook has improved; now cystic fibrosis can be recognized sooner and treatment is available.

RESPIRATORY distress occurs when the sticky sputum clogs the air passageways. Chronic obstruction in this area invites infection. Ultimately, emphysema and scarring of the lungs develop. The condition may be suspected initially when the child fails to recover promptly from a chest cold. At one time, many of these cases were mis-diagnosed as chronic bronchitis or whooping cough pneumonia. Cough and shortness of breath are common symptoms.

The concentration of certain enzymes is reduced when the pancreas is involved. This leads to gastrointestinal discomfort. In addition, the cohesive mucus may block this gland. In time, cysts and scars form in the framework of the pancreas (hence the name, cystic fibrosis). The thick, gluey secretions also form masses that clog the intestine. A special diet, along with pancreatic enzymes, will alleviate distress and prevent malnutrition.

THE SWEAT contains an over-abundance of salt. This in itself is a good diagnostic test. The parents may note the youngsters taste salty when kissed; also that white, gritty material appears on their forehead after exertion. This excessive loss of salt explains why they do not feel well during hot weather.

Not every victim of the disease develops a fullblown case. Moreover, those with considerable lung involvement may have little gastrointestinal trouble, and vice versa.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

ULCERATIVE COLITIS

I. F. writes: My 2-year-old daughter has had diarrhea for four months and her condition has been diagnosed as chronic ulcerative colitis. What would cause this disease in a young child?

REPLY

The cause is not known, except that stress often is to blame. This type of colitis is unusual in young children. A British physician believes early weaning is responsible.

BOOST IMMUNITY

L. P. writes: Will immunizing an infant against diphtheria protect him through childhood?

REPLY

Yes, but a booster dose is needed every three or four years. A Schick test will reveal whether the child is immune.

PILL ADDICTION

S. S. writes: Is it possible for a person who is addicted to amphetamine pills to be cured without being hospitalized?

REPLY

Yes, but a psychiatrist may be needed if this person cannot cure himself.

NERVOUS OR NEUROTIC

M. T. writes: Is a high-strung person considered a neurotic?

REPLY

No, even though some neurotics are high-strung. Much depends upon the meaning of the word, high-strung.

Today's Health Hint — Do something about bronchitis.

New Hamburger Wins State Prize

RICHLAND, Wash. (UPI) — Benton County Coroner Dr. T. J. Albertowicz won the state championship in a cooking contest sponsored by the Potato Chip Institute.

His "chipped stroganoff supreme" — hamburger topped with dumplings and potato chips — made him the second member of the family to become a state cooking titlist. His wife won a state contest for her banana split cake two years ago.

Today's Conditions Harder On Plugs

NEW YORK (UPI) — Modern high-compression engines, congested city traffic and high speed expressways put automobile spark plugs through a more grueling workout than they ever got in the old days.

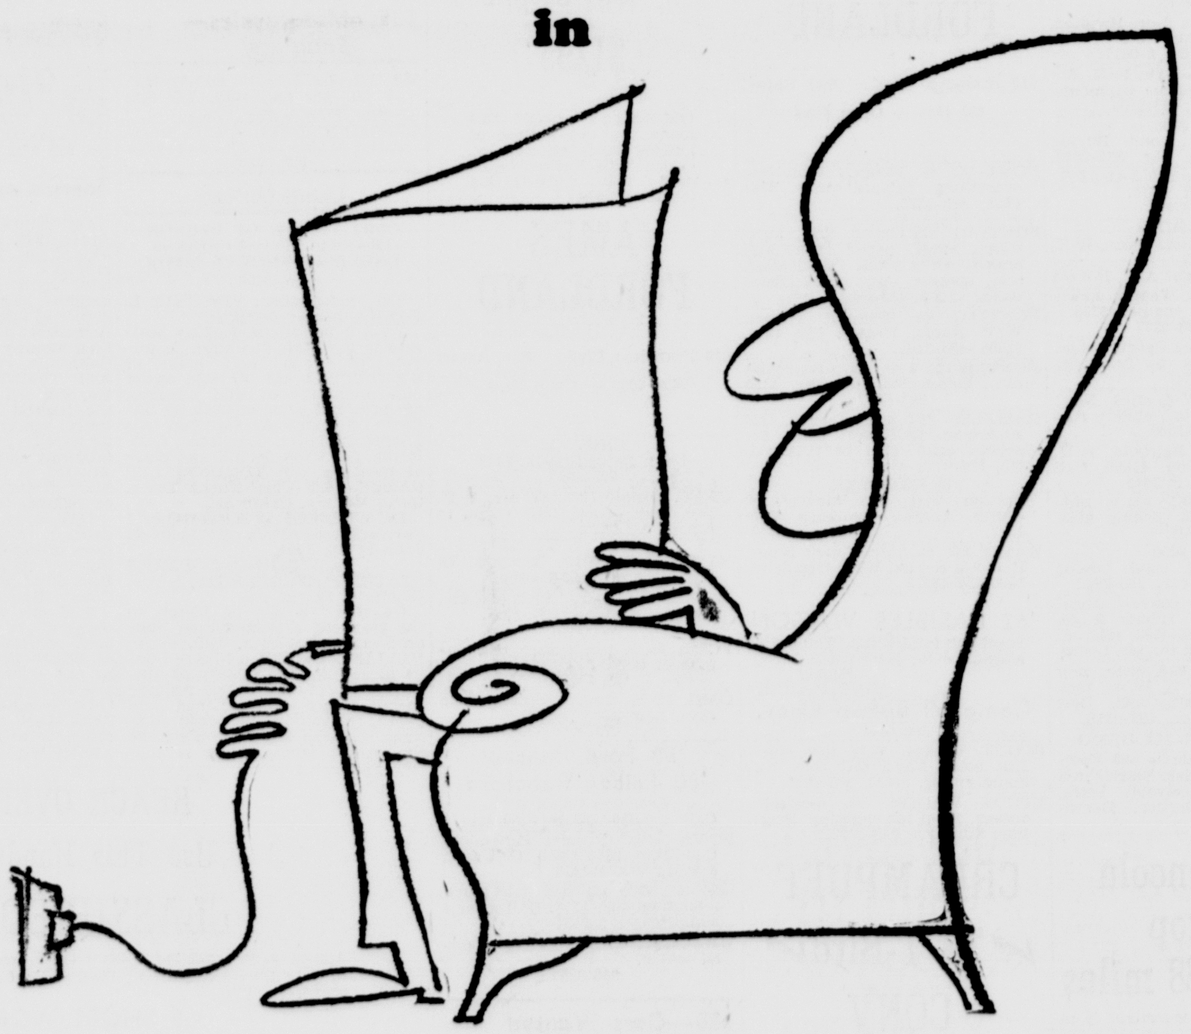
After 10,000 miles, worn spark plugs substantially cut gas mileage and overall performance, according to Midas auto safety engineers who advise cleaning and inspecting of plugs at 5,000-mile intervals.

Las Vegas Has The Most Pools

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — This desert resort has more swimming pools—3,500—than any other comparable area in the world.

Most of the 13 major hotels have two large pools each and it is rare to find any of the city's 280 motels without one. And a dip in the backyard pool is the order of the day at many private homes.

Picture of a man perfectly tuned in



In his own good time, any time in the day, almost anywhere, a man can enjoy his newspaper. He can read the headlines, make up his mind when to read further and when to skip on to the next item. He can read his favorite columnists, catch up on sports or whatever interests him, read the ads, agree with the editorials or not, and laugh at the comics or not. He can even find out when he wants to turn on TV. He can lay the paper aside... pick it up later and still get the whole story. Nothing waits on his personal convenience like a newspaper in his pocket. No wonder newspapers are the primary advertising medium. No wonder advertisers invest more of their dollars in newspapers

Notre Dame Melody Spreads

NEW YORK (AP) — Twenty-nine per cent of the nation's elementary and secondary schools have school songs based on Notre Dame's "Victory March," a recent research project reveals.

According to the poll, five other popular college songs form the basis for an additional 60 per cent.

A pound of potatoes in this country costs the average factory worker two minutes of labor, compared with four and one-half minutes in England and seven minutes in Russia.

Students Give Up A Baking Idea

RENO (AP) — University of Nevada students got a hot idea for a flashy opening of their annual winter carnival. They hoped to find a volunteer skier, to wear a fire-proof asbestos suit, douse him with kerosene and send him flaming down the slope at the head of a torchlight parade on skis.

First, however, they checked with a fire fighting expert at nearby Stead Air Force Base. Linda Chambers, a student, reported the expert told them: "He'd be baked by the time he got to the bottom of the hill."

Flashy Paint Scares Pedestrians Away

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Trophy company owner Mort Tuller says some people do believe all that glitters is gold.

He painted the sidewalk in front of his store gold, then noted that many people refused to walk on it, most of them stepping out into the street to go around it.
